

Bowman wins three honors in golf tournament

Ron Bowman won the medal play tournament to decide the Willow Creek club championship this past weekend. Bowman won the coveted award with an 18-hole score of 65. John Edmundson was second with a 69.

In the 2nd flight, Wayland Hyatt won with a 69 and Elmer Palmer took second with a 72.

In the third flight, Rick Johnston was the trophy winner with a score of 72 and Dorian Forrar placed second with a 74 score.

The first place winners in each flight won a trophy that will be presented to them at the annual meeting.

Bob Jepsen was in charge of the tournament.

Ron Bowman was a triple winner as he also had the longest drive of the tourney and came closest to the pin. Wayland Hyatt won the least putts contest.

The last barbeque of the season at the golf course will be Sept. 30. Barbeques are family affairs with both golfer and non-golfer family members enjoying the activities.

All prospective golf members are welcome at this barbeque. Participants bring their own meat and those with last names ending in A through I bring salad and J through Z bring dessert.

A fun golf round is played at 4 p.m. and dinner is between 5:30 and 6 p.m.

The golf club is a private club and all residents of south Morrow County must join to play. Memberships are available on a monthly basis for new members for the remainder of the year at $5 a month. For membership information call Sharon Harrison at 989-8496.

Inspiration for the team

Women's volleyball team hosts Condon today

The women's volleyball team from Condon will travel to Heppner today to meet the Mustang's squad in a 5 p.m. match in the high school gym.

"Condon should be one of the best teams in our league," said Heppner coach Sheri Brock. "I don't know about the other teams because they have lost a lot of their main players.

Coach Brock is in her third year as volleyball coach at Heppner High and she said 40 players are turning out this year which is her largest turn-out ever. Brock's teams have finished second and then third in her previous seasons.

The Mustangs are 1-0 in league play so far this year. They beat Wasco County last week 14-16, 15-5 and 15-6. High point server for the game was Geri Grieb with 14.

The junior varsity team also beat Wasco 15-13 and 15-10. The C team lost 15-4, 5-15 and 6-15.

In another away match, this one a non-league contest, Heppner lost to Hermiston 15-5 and 15-10. Kellie Hammond was high point server in that match-up.

The JV team also lost 16-14, 7-15 and 5-15. The C team won the first game easily 15-9 but lost the last two games 15-6 and 15-3.

Heppner's volleyball team has its first home match tonight. There are only four players returning from last year's varsity squad. The team had another match Tuesday against Wahonka in The Dalles but it was too late for press time.

Lions golf tourney planned for Saturday

The local Lions' Club is sponsoring a golf tournament which is open to all golfers Sept. 22 at the Willow Creek Golf Course.

According to Lions' president John Edmundson, proceeds from the benefit tournament will go to the Lions' Sight Foundation. There will be an $8 entry fee and prizes will be awarded and a lunch of salads, hot dogs and baked beans has been scheduled to be served.

The tournament will begin at 8 a.m. Saturday with coffee and rolls being served. There will then be a qualifying round played of nine holes to determine groupings. After the qualifying round, all the golfers will play 18 holes.

Garden Club flower show Sunday in Ione

Flowers, plants, fruits and vegetables of all sizes, shapes and kinds will be on display at the Flower Show and Silver Tea this Sunday from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. in the Ione School Cafeteria.

The show is being sponsored by the Ione and Heppner Garden Clubs and no admission price will be charged. The Ione Club is celebrating its 30th anniversary.

All amateur gardeners are invited to exhibit their flowers. Junior gardener competition will also be available for those 12-year-old and under. Gardeners may enter the competition from 8:30 a.m. to 11 a.m. Sunday morning. The judging will take place behind closed doors from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. The show will then be open to the public from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Only one entry may be made in class or sub-class but all contestants may enter as many classes as they would like to.

Division I on the program is for horticulture entries. Assters, calendula, chrysanthemums, dahlias, geraniums, gladiolus, marigolds, nasturtiums, pansies, petunias, roses, rudbeckia, snap dragons, zinnias and bouquets of a variety of these flowers will be displayed.

Division II is for junior gardener competition. The age groups for judging will be from four to seven-year-olds and eight to 12-year-olds.

Division III is for artistic design in the arrangement of flowers.

Division IV is educational. Nancy Miller and Theta Lowe will educate onlookers on the "uses of herbs." Helen Martin has a program called "know your seeds." Jean Nelson will present a garden library and Judy Osmin will have a program on "hydroponics."

Division V will be gardening exhibits or displays by local community organizations and service clubs like the 4-H, churches, lodges, grange groups, etc. Interested groups may contact Jean Nelson at 989-8188.

Division VI will be on state and national council objectives and Division VII of the flower show will be commercial.

Awards will be awarded by the judges. Blue, red and yellow ribbons will be given to the first, second and third place winners in each class of competition. White ribbons, for honorable mention, will be given in some cases, if merited.

Rosette ribbons will be given to the winners of the best artistic design and the best horticulture specimen. An arrangement container will be awarded to the exhibitor with the most blue ribbons in the horticulture division.

The sweepstakes revolving award, a pewter compote, will be awarded to the exhibitor having the most blue ribbons in the entire show.

Grandson visits

Jason Van Winkle, grandson of Gladys Van Winkle returned to his home in Enumclaw, Wash. after visiting here for a couple of weeks. On Thursday, he and his grandmother accompanied Mr. and Mrs. C.C. Jones to John Day to the Grant County Fair and Jason met his great grandmother, Sally Lawry at her home in Mt. Vernon.

Mental health director named

Dr. Terrel Templeman has recently been hired as program director for Morrow County Mental Health Services, replacing Dr. Janice Green, who has accepted a position with Douglas County Mental Health Services.

Dr. Terrel Templeman

Dr. Templeman received his B.A. from the University of Oregon and his M.A. and Ph.D. in clinical psychology from the University of Montana.

Dr. Templeman comes to Morrow County with experience and training in a variety of clinical areas, including family and marital therapy, cognitive and behavioral therapy, neuropsychology, correctional psychology, and hypnosis. As program director Dr. Templeman says he is interested in maintaining the good relationships that Morrow County Mental Health Services already has with the school system, hospital, courts and other agencies.

He said also he is interested in making mental health services in this county more accessible to people who do not necessarily have mental disorders but who may wish to improve their effectiveness coping with stressful events in their lives, such as physical illness, aging, personal losses, family disagreements, and job strain. He believes in this way mental health services could be as much a prevention program as it is a treatment program.

Dr. Templeman will reside in Heppner with his wife Bonnie and 9-month-old son Kharis.

Ione Cardinals blank PV

Greg Rietmann rushed for 158 yards on 25 carries and scored two touchdowns leading Ione's Cardinals to a 22-0 shut-out over Powder Valley.

Ione scored all of its points in the first half of the game at Powder Valley. Rietmann scored on an eight-yard run in the first period and on a 24-yard run in the second stanza.

Quarterback Dennis Stefani also scored a TD rushing. He scored six points on an eight-yard romp. Stefani also ran for two two-point extra points. The third attempt at a two-point conversion failed.

The Cardinal defense held PV to 137 yards rushing and 26 yards passing. Ione totaled 287 yards on the ground.

Newcomer bowlers on top

The Newcomers bowling team is alone on top of the Koffee Kup Keglers League standings after the second week of bowling.

The Newcomers are 7-1 while the Weary Wives and the Gutter Dusters are tied for second at 5-3.

The Three L's and the Three Holers come next with 4-4 marks and the Pytts are in fourth place with a 3-5 record. The Hi-Ho's and the Dregs are at 2-6.

Iris Campbell had the high series with 481 pins bowled down in three games. The high team game was the Weary Wives at 624.

The high team series was rolled by the first place Newcomers at 1638.

Betty Snow bowled a 218 game with a broken thumb.
