

Marsha Lovgren weds William S. Shannon Jr. on August 25

Saturday, August 25, at 4 p.m. in the St. Mark's Episcopal Church, New Canaan, Ct., Marsha Lovgren and William S. Shannon, Jr. were united in marriage. The Rev. Fred Morris officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the bride and groom are Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Lovgren, Heppner, Ore. and Mr. and Mrs.

William S. Shannon, Sr., New Canaan, Ct.

The bride's gown was designed of white satin organza, featuring lily of the valley embroidery outlining the neckline and bodice. The flowing skirt extended into a chapel length train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was outlined with scalloped edging and was held with a cap of match floral trim to complete the bridal ensemble.

The bride wore a single strand of pearls and carried a bouquet of white roses, Fugi mums, stephanotis, baby breath accented with fresh, wild rosemary and white ribbon.

The groom wore a white three-piece suit with a navy tie and a boutonniere of two white roses and baby breath.

The maid of honor was

Karen McGee of London, England and the best man was Ken Morrison, Delrey Beach, Florida. The maid of honor was dressed in a long peach gown with gathered bodice and shawl and carried a bouquet of peach roses, Fugi mums, baby breath and the best man wore a white pinstripe suit and wore a boutonniere of a white carnation.

The newlyweds are now living at 318 Snapfinger Circle No. 106 Daytona Beach, Florida 32014.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Shannon

Gasoline supplies show increase

Monthly gasoline supply reports show that gasoline supplies will increase slightly for Pacific Northwest consumers in the month of September over last month's supply, according to Jack B. Robertson, Regional Representative to the Secretary.

In releasing the September figures, Robertson cautioned motorists against dropping their conservation efforts. "Although the public has made a noticeable adjustment to driving with available gasoline supplies, we are still on the ragged edge of supply. Continued constraint on the part of motorists is necessary to help up through this tight supply situation."

A state-by-state, August to September comparison for the Pacific Northwest shows Oregon had 115.6 million of gallons of gasoline supplies in August, 1979 compared to 120.8 million gallons at the same time last year.

Woman wins Adventists' Fair prize late-comers opportunity to enter.

Therefore, the following Saturday, with the congregation as witness, Pastor Bill Poole opened the box, thoroughly mixed the cards, and called pre-schooler Bobby Ponce to come and draw one out.

The name on the card was Darcy Holloman. When Miss

Holloman was presented with the book a few days later, she protested, "But I never won anything in my life." Recovering from her surprise, she accepted the book when Pastor Poole assured her that this time she had, indeed, won.

The church members were happy to be able to offer as a prize a book they value highly in their own libraries.

Annual fall rummage set by Soroptimists

The annual Fall Rummage Sale sponsored by the Heppner Soroptimist Club will be held on one day only this year. Oct. 6 is the date set for the event, which, every year, has helped to provide funds for scholarships given by the Soroptimists.

The sale will be from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the Fair Pavilion. A good assortment of rummage has already been donated.

Those having items to be picked up may call Elaine George, 676-9442 or Marlene Gray, 676-5395.

AROUND ABOUT

With Justine Weatherford

How lucky we feel that the closest thing to a hurricane ever recorded in this county was the unusual cyclone which swept through Lexington in 1888. It occurred on June 14, exactly 15 years before the greatest of Heppner's floods June 14, 1903.

That funnel-shaped cloud formed over Jordan Buttes, struck the Lexington Grove (the picnic area) and moved through the business section before continuing out toward Butter Creek. One person was killed, but no estimate of the financial loss is given by the reporters of the event.

Now most of the annual community festivals in north-central Oregon have ended for 1979 and the street flags advertising them have been tucked away. For many Round-Up fans and Heppner Parade fans the death of Ethel H. Lehman was a terrific shock.

Just a week ago Saturday, along with thousands of others, I watched her last parade appearance as she rode her beloved Danny Boy in the Pendleton Dressup Parade, the very night before her death. Danny Boy, her 18-year-old Appaloosa, was led along the streets of Pendleton in last Friday's Westward Ho Parade without his blue and silver clad, 78-year-old mistress mounted so proudly on his back.

After reading the high praise that the Echo community has for Ethel Lehman, I began to think of some ladies in her age bracket that are still so active in Morrow County. To name a few of the great-grandmother set who help make life more pleasant for many younger folk, include Edith Nicholson, Ione, who is still so active after 30 blooming years in the Ione Garden Club and who keeps the best front yard in town and who will help with the Flower Show this Sunday.

Here in Heppner several who are still very active are Hazel Hamlin the super cook who almost daily shares her culinary treats with many friends and neighbors and Emma Drake who is insisting on doing a Tom Sawyer act and painting her own fence in spite of those who advise her that she is "too old."

It has been exciting to be hearing of several possible new energy developments. The Larry Lindsays have surely explained great possibilities for the use of living, annually-replaceable, solar energy via plant conversion with part of the plants' elements made into alcohol. It is so good that they attended the special school in Kansas which is convincing many that there is a practical process "which will not have an adverse effect on food supplies" and which will help to make our nation independent of the OPEC oil monopoly.

Just a few days before the Lindsay presentation here, I heard of another hopeful new energy scheme at a "Changing Lifestyles" workshop in Pendleton. The speaker told of a process called the Stewart Energy System which puts two different gases at work against each other. This system of producing energy claims to be 95 per cent efficient and a rather minimal investment is said to provide all the energy needed in a home or small business for many, rather carefree years.

Last weekend I attended a conference in La Grande and felt again the excitement of a college town making ready for the fall influx of students. There were "Welcome Back" and "Welcome to E.O.C." banners scattered about. Most of the apartments I saw had "No Vacancy" signs out.

The annual scramble for school-year housing made me recall my many years in Corvallis where each year it seemed there were more students who wanted off-campus housing arrangements. Way back when I left home to go to college almost every student lived in campus housing—in the dormitories or with fraternity groups. Lifestyles seem to constantly change.

Next Sunday it is hoped that many folks will head for Ione High School Cafetorium to exhibit their flowers and/or enjoy viewing blooms others have grown and have fashioned into artistic designs. Admission is free. Tea will be served by Ione and Heppner Garden Club members between 2 and 5 p.m.

Soroptimist International members of Heppner have decided to hold their Fall Rummage Sale Oct. 6. President Clista Vernard says that the collecting of saleable items is beginning now. The Soroptimists spend lots of time and energy getting ready for this sale which will take place on just one day this year, from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.

This well-established fall sale draws shoppers from long distances. Money received will go to the club's scholarship fund. One Soroptimist, Ola Mae Groshens, who has been away many months, has returned to Heppner and will probably be able to help with the big sale again as she has for many years.

No one can say for certain what the weather here will be in the next eight months, but it almost makes one feel guilty to be enjoying our lovely, sunny autumn while so many are suffering in the hurricane areas.

Lexington news

• Delpha Jones • 989-8189

The Rev. and Mrs. Robert Nash and girls are now in residence at the Lexington Christian Church parsonage in Lexington where he has taken up his duties as minister. The family moved here from Bend, Ore. The two girls are enrolled in school at Ione.

The PNG club of Holly Rebekah Lodge met at the LeTerrace Restaurant in Hermiston Saturday afternoon where they enjoyed a luncheon. Those present were Florence McMillan, Gladys VanWinkle, Irene Padberg, Leila Palmer, Delpha Jones, Virginia Peck and a guest, Venice Hendrickson. Hostesses for the December meeting are Gladys VanWinkle and Delpha Jones.

Mrs. Carl Marquardt and daughter Sherrie motored to Portland over the weekend to visit Bob Smith who is a patient in the hospital there. Smith is the fiancee of Miss Marquardt. Last week the Marquardts also visited Dave Piper who is a patient in a hospital in Portland where he had surgery on a hand.

Mrs. Florence McMillan and Venice Hendrickson were Pendleton callers Thursday. Mrs. McMillan remained there and visited a daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cool.

Marie Yocom who attends Blue Mountain Community College was a weekend caller in Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Chick were weekend visitors at the home of her mother, Mrs. Venice Hendrickson, from their work in Pendleton.

Mrs. Tom Bradd and infant daughter Josie are visiting with Mrs. Bradd's mother Gladys VanWinkle. They came by Amtrak from their home in Ontario to Hinkle where they were met by Mrs. VanWinkle.

Mr. and Mrs. Butch Sawyer of Burbank, Calif. were callers at the C.C. Jones Ranch Saturday.

Three Links Club met at the home of Catie Padberg Thursday. Plans were made for a food sale Sept. 27 starting at 3 p.m. near the Lexington City Hall. This will consist of pies, breads, etc. for hunters. Those present for the afternoon were Leila Palmer, Leita Messenger, Virginia Peck, Eileen Padberg, Irene Padberg, Joyce Buchanan, Dorothy Burcham, Gladys VanWinkle and the hostess Mrs. Padberg. The next meeting is scheduled for the Irene Padberg Ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Smith had as house guests this last week his aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Cave of Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Majeske have recently had as visitors their three grandchildren, the O'Brien children from Echo.

Leora Kane and Patrick spent a couple of days in Echo visiting friends.

15¢
A Word
($1.50, 10-word minimum)

Gazette-Times ads are read throughout Morrow County for they represent the "Morrow County Marketplace". The Gazette-Times ads are part of your community newspaper package—issued every Thursday. For news of what your neighbors are doing, read the Gazette-Times. To know of what they are buying, selling or trading, read the Classifieds!

Try Our Free Ads

If you have anything to give away, from pets to "white elephants," use our "free" column.
If you have found a lost article and want no reward from the owner, use our "free" column.
Also, students under 18 looking for part-time or first-time jobs may use the "free" column.
Ads in the "free column" will be accepted from individuals only, not businesses or organizations, for one-time insertion, 10 words or less. They must be mailed or brought to the Gazette-Times office, 147 West Willow Street, Heppner—no phone-in orders on "free" ads, please!

Everybody reads the Classifieds!

GREAT SAVINGS THIS FALL

DAP
ACRYLIC LATEX CAULK
Guns easily and sets quickly. Provides excellent seal. White. 11 fluid ounce cartridge. (322) (11465) $1.19

DENNIS VINYL FOAM WEATHERSTRIP
Ideal for door frames. Self-adhesive, closed cell vinyl foam. 30-foot economy roll. (302) (206) 99¢

88¢
DENNIS VINYL & ALUMINUM DOOR BOTTOM
Flexible vinyl lip stops drafts under doors. 36 inches long, complete with screws. (301) (A54P)

Fall Money Saving Sale starts Sept. 27.

Pettyjohn's Heppner 676-9157

Rietmann's Hardware Ione 422-7211

Heppner Gazette-Times

WANT ADS

BUY, SELL, RENT, LEASE, TRADE, DEADLINE IS MONDAY

676-9228

NAME	_____
ADDRESS	_____
PHONE	_____
RUNS _____ TIMES TF	_____
FIRST DATE	_____
LAST DATE	_____
NO. WORDS	_____
INCHES	_____
CLASSIFICATION	_____