

Many ribbons awarded at lone flower show

At the Thirty Blooming Years Anniversary Flower Show and Silver Tea Sept. 23 in Ione, the most blue ribbons from all divisions brought the revolving sweepstakes award, a pewter compote, to Helen Martin of Ione.

Jane Rawlins, Heppner, won the arrangement container awarded for the most blue ribbons in artistic design and Bill Rawlins, Heppner, gained the spring bulbs, awarded to the outstanding winner in the horticulture division.

Marion McMillan, Lexington, earned the sweepstakes award in the junior division.

The three professional, nationally certified judges of Standard Garden Shows who examined and rated the 317 entries were Mrs. Edward Donahue of Portland, Mrs. Kemble Tellefson from Milton-Freewater and Mrs. Arthur Cox of Gresham.

The show, staged by the Ione and Heppner Garden Clubs in the cafeteria of the Ione High School was well attended by Morrow County folk and by visitors from Hermiston, Echo, Pendleton, Umatilla and by Mr. and Mrs. Tom Davidson of Hemet, Calif., and Jan Chick of Kamloops, B.C. Mark Tullis, Ione, served as official photographer.

Helen Martin presided over Ione Club's history in pictures, its yearly, prize-winning scrapbooks and a showing of colored slides. Martin was also in charge of the judges. Barbara James served as chief clerk and took charge of the commercial division. Jean Nelson managed the garden library. Justine Weatherford served as publicity chairman.

Currently Eva Griffith is president of the Heppner Club and Delta Huber is president of the Ione Club.

Special attractions at the show included the 4-H showing of the edible wild plants arranged by Todd Harrison, and the commercial exhibits by Barb's Plant Seller, Green's Feed and Seed and Rietmann's Hardware.

The herb display arranged by Nancy Miller and Theta Lowe and the collection of seeds by Helen Martin attracted many favorable comments.
