State Grange master visits Pomona Grange session

A lengthy and instructive Pomona Grange meeting was held at the Lexington Grange Hall Oct. 27 at 10:30 a.m.

Introduced at this time were State Master W.C. Harris; Executive member William Taggart; Ralph Fenton, Oregon State Deputy; Berl Akers, Executive committee member and wife Margaret, the District No. 6 WCA Chairman; Delta Johnson, Sherman County Pomona Master and District WCA Chairman; Morton Wolverson, Umatilla County Deputy; Joe DuPuis, Umatilla Pomona Master; and guests Rolland Johnson, Mrs. Fenton, Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Taggart. Also introduced were Mr. and Mrs. Bates who were celebrating their 64 years of married life, and these fine people were presented a cake from the Pomona.

The state officers were present to explain the reasons for the consolidation of the counties of Morrow, Sherman, Wheeler and Gilliam into a district, as the last three counties have the less active granges. Following this needed and appreciated discussion of pros and cons, most concern being the distances to drive and the price of gasoline, an election of officers was held with the following elected: Sherman County's Rolland Johnson as Master of Morrow County; Bryce Keene, Overseer of Sherman County; Delta Johnson as Lecturer Morrow County; Steward Barton Clark, Morrow County; Kenneth Smouse as Assistant Steward, and his wife Frances Smouse as lady assistant Steward, Morrow County; Anna Warren as Chaplain, Morrow County; Delpha Jones as Secretary, and Charles C. Jones as Treasurer, Wheeler County; Gus Strecker as Gatekeeper, Morrow County; Edna Melby as Ceres, Morrow County; Marie White as Pomona; Nyna Knighten from Gilliam County and the three Executive committee members, Mary Wilkins, J.G. Weimer, Gilliam County and Dorris Graves, Morrow County.

Several resolutions were read from Lexington Grange, one in opposition to the passage of SB14 and this was tabled as it had gone in previously and was already in the proper hands for consideration. A discussion of supporting the use of alcohol as fuel which had been acted on previously in 1979 and had gone from the state to the national, was also tabled. The one on the protection of "The Willow Creek Watershed in Morrow County State of Oregon" was favorable and will be sent to the state office. A thanks to the Lexington Grange for the fine dinner was the fourth topic.

Favorable reports were heard from the WCA chairman Mildred Wright and Margaret Akers.

The following ladies received checks from Morrow County Pomona for winning at the Pomona level in the sewing and needlework contests: Marie White, Martha Baker, Marilyn Bergstrom and Ruth Bergstrom.

Dec. 9 has been set for the date of the installation of the Pomona and subordinate officers at the Willows Grange Hall at 2:30 p.m. with a potluck dinner to follow. The installing team from Umatilla County, under the direction of Morton Wolverson, will do the installing.

Under the CWA the group heard of a new hearing program being formed in Morrow and Umatilla counties for students and pre-schoolers. There is a class acting at the present in Umatilla County in Hermiston and this will get support from the Grange hearing program.

Grangers were present from Rufus, Mikkalo, Powell Butte, Stanfield, Columbia, Lexington, Greenfield, Willows, and Rhea Creek.

The January meeting place will be announced later.

A turkey dinner was served at noon with Barbara Bloodworth in charge.

Meals for Vets

Nearly 98 million meals were served in Veterans Administration medical centers last year.

Blazer workshop set

By Birdine Tullis

Jacket Workshop

Women in Morrow and Umatilla counties will be sporting the most popular clothing item of the fall season at the completion of a jacket (or blazer) workshop scheduled by the Extension Service for early November.

The two session workshop will be taught by Debbie Lee, Umatilla County Extension Service, and Birdine Tullis, Morrow County. Techniques will be taught for quickly completing a jacket of wool, or similar woven fabrics.

The Morrow County classes will be Nov. 8 and 14, at the Annex at the fairgrounds in Heppner. About 20 women have enrolled for the classes.

Those enrolled will receive information on what to bring to the first session of the workshop. Jackets are by far the most popular clothing item of fall completing the suited look, or worn as separates with both skirts and pants.

Blue Mt. reserving play seats

Season ticket holders may reserve seats by mail for the College-Community Theatre's fall play, "Blithe Spirit" to be presented Nov. 8, 9, 10 and Nov. 15, 16, 17.

The comedy was written by Noel Coward and is directed by Caryl Clapp and Bill Manny. Starring in the production are Jim Willis, Roberta Jones, Jody Noble, Tracy Duke, Melame Rosanbaum, Joanne Schlapa and Mike Dasehback.

Those wishing to reserve a seat must write to Blue Mountain Community College at P.O. Box 100 specifying their name, phone number, number of seats desired, date and whether all seats must be together. Season tickets are still available by writing the college at the same address.

Reservations are due at the college no later than Nov. 5. Tickets will be held at the box office the evening of the performance and must be claimed by 7:50 p.m.

Eastern Oregon Hospital and Training Center Christmas Needs

Information from the director of volunteer service at Eastern Oregon Hospital and Training Center in Pendleton, tells us that again this year there is a need for gifts of articles or money to help make Christmas a more joyous occasion at the hospital. Many patients have no family or friends to provide gifts.

A list is available from the extension service for the most needed or requested items for the patients. It is helpful if your gifts or check arrives by Dec. 1 as volunteers begin wrapping soon after that date. Almost any item is acceptable as a gift. Please do not wrap items, but gift wrap and tie is appreciated. Include your name and address on all boxes and sacks. Please, send only new items. Chronological age of patients is 16 year and over, so children's clothing cannot be used.

Mentally, many patients are children and enjoy sturdy toys and games, especially educational and manipulative items that teach or build basic living skills. If you are sending a gift of money, make your check payable to Christmas Project '79, and send it to Eastern Oregon Hospital and Training Center at Box A in Pendleton, 97901.

Nazarenes plan special services

The Rev. Ray Kellom and his wife will be conducting special services at the Heppner Church of the Nazarene from Nov. 12 through Nov. 18, said the Rev. James King, pastor.

The public is invited.

O.E.S. chapter receives visitation

Mrs. Meryl Beardon, Milwaukie, Assistant Grand Conduress of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, made an official visit at a special Oct. 17 meeting of the Ruth-Locust Chapter No. 32, O.E.S.

She gave the officers helpful instruction in their ritualistic work. Before the meeting a no-host dinner was enjoyed.

Another special meeting for members will be Nov. 14 when a district meeting will be held at Hermiston, Umatilla, Ruth-Locust and Queen Esther Chapters will take part.

Mrs. Dorothy Doane, from Eugene, Worthy Grand Matron of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, will be making her official visit. A potluck dinner will precede the meeting at 6:30 p.m. in the Hermiston Masonic Hall.

Ruth-Locust members are reminded of a practice session at their regular Nov. 12 meeting in Heppner.

Permanent disabled

In 1976, 9 percent of white people and 13 percent of blacks reported permanent work disabilities.

Singspiration slated Nov. 11

November's ecumenical Singspiration will be held at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 11 at the Church of the Nazarene in Heppner.

The Rev. James J. King, pastor, said a movie, "If I Should Die," will be shown following the song service. A free-will offering will be taken.

Coffee and doughnuts will be served in the church fellowship rooms afterwards, he said. The program is sponsored by the Heppner Ministerial Association.

FEDERAL ELECTRICITY: HOW SHOULD IT BE DIVIDED?

BPA must allocate limited electricity supplies.

BPA doesn't have enough firm electric power to meet its customers' future needs. We've already told the direct-service industries we won't be able to offer new contracts to them when their present contracts expire. We no longer guarantee firm energy to investor-owned utilities. We can't even guarantee serving the full requirements of publicly owned utilities and cooperatives after 1983. By law, they get first call on federal power. But what do you do when there isn't enough to go around?

Who should get the power?

The decision isn't easy to make. But under the Bonneville Project Act, the BPA Administrator must determine which customers get how much federal power. The law is clear that cooperatives and publicly owned utilities get first call. But, should this allocation of power go to newly formed public utilities as well? Should some preference customers be cut back more than others?

On January 23, 1978, we filed a notice of intent to develop an allocation policy. We received a lot of comments and suggestions. With those in mind, we have now drafted a formal proposal.

Talk to us.

It's important that you know about and think about the proposed policy. Its effect on your community may be profound. So find out what it is. Then give us your comments and suggestions.
