

Address changes may be mailed

A trip to a Motor Vehicles Division field office for address change notifications is no longer necessary.

Rose McCoy, DMV manager in Heppner, said that a law which took effect Oct. 3 allows drivers and people who have non-driver identification cards to notify the division of a change of address by mail to the Salem headquarters, or in person at a DMV office.

Notice must still be in writing. McCoy said the change was made in an attempt to reduce workloads in DMV offices as well as to make it more convenient for people to notify the division of a change of address.

Oregon law says drivers must notify DMV of a change of address within 30 days of the change.

There will be times when a new duplicate license still will be needed, Mrs. McCoy said. That will happen if a driver has restrictions on the license so that there is no room on the back for the adhesive sticker showing the new address. DMV also will issue a new photo license for an address change if the person insists on getting one. Any new issue, however, will cost the person $3 while issuance of the adhesive sticker is free.

SHERIFF'S OFFICE REPORT :

The following cases were handled by the Morrow County Sheriff's office for the week ending Nov. 5.

Two male juveniles were charged with criminal mischief for damaging some school buses at Riverside High School. The juveniles apparently were attempting to unlawfully remove gas from the tank of a bus when they were apprehended by an officer. The juveniles apparently ran into one of the buses with the truck they were in while they were parking it. Investigation is pending.

cause of an accident eight miles southeast of Lexington on Hwy. 207. He apparently took a corner on Baseline Road going about 60 miles per hour on a foggy, wet day. The 1979 Ford he was driving was totaled and he was taken to Pioneer Memorial Hospital with injuries.

Gary Lee Rozinski, 2345 N.E. Sandy Apt. No. 25 in Portland, has been arrested and then released on bail on two counts of carrying a concealed weapon. William Gerald Peck, Box 127 Boardman Ave. in Boardman, reported Rozinski had a gun and a knife concealed in the Nomad Restaurant. A companion of Rozinski, Herbert Williams, 225 Couch St. in Portland was cited for possession of less than one ounce of a controlled substance and having no operator's license.

The Heppner City Police are investigating a criminal mischief occurrence at Cal's Arco Station in Heppner. Calvin Allen Sherman, 205 Willow View Drive in Heppner, reported that two air hoses from the station were cut and the air gauges worth $74 were taken. Investigation is pending.
