Cards at home Saturday

The Ione Cardinals played Cascade Locks last night in a make-up game of last Saturday's contest that was called off because of icy road conditions.

The Cards will play Helix tomorrow night in an away game and Wheeler Saturday at home in an 8 p.m. contest.

Ione beat Helix last week in a make-up game of a contest that was postponed earlier in the season because of bad weather.

"Helix has only one scorer and they are not as quick as we are," said Del LaRue, the Ione basketball head coach. "Wheeler is potentially more dangerous. They have one big man who is 6-foot-6."

Ione beat Wheeler two weeks ago. LaRue said the game was close until Ione put on a press and then the Cards blew the game open. He said the team will probably put on its press earlier in the game this time because Wheeler could not "handle the pressure" in the first meeting.

Ione junior high team beats Heppner by four points

The Ione Junior High basketball team beat Heppner's junior high team for the second time this year last Thursday by a score of 28-24.

The teams were tied 16-16 at halftime but a Heppner press caused some turnovers and the Ponies took the lead in the early minutes of the fourth quarter. Ione countered with a man-to-man press of its own and came back to win.

Craig Hams led the winner with 13 points with Mark Meyers scoring 8. Steve Millman 5 and Darrin Padberg 2. Greg Orr scored 14 for Heppner and Todd Miller scored 4.

Ione's next game is today at Arlington. The young Cardinals will participate in the Helix jamboree Saturday with the first game at 9 a.m. The other teams in the tournament are Helix, Echo and Pleasant View.

Fillies lose by one point to Condon she devils

Condon's Blue Devils beat the Heppner Fillies Friday 38-37 despite making only 2-of-20 free throws. The game was close throughout as Heppner led at the end of the first quarter 11-8. A steal and a lay-in shot by Lynn Dee Devin in the second quarter put Heppner out in front 19-14 but Condon cut the gap to 19-18 at halftime.

Mary Kincaid led Heppner in scoring in the first half with 8 points with Devin adding 6. Alice Abrams and Deann Conner 2 each and Geri Grieb scored 1.

Heppner still led at the end of the three quarters 27-26 but Condon went ahead in the fourth quarter on a 15 footer by Jennifer Bauman.

Condon scored on an offensive rebound and a fast break to make the score 36-31 in favor of Condon with 3:30 left in the game. Little 5-foot-1 Meg Greiner led the Condon comeback with her quickness on the fast break.

The Blue Devils had a chance to put the game out of reach as Heppner was forced to foul but Condon could not convert the free throws as the team made 2-of-10 in the fourth quarter.

Heppner could have had a chance to win the game when Greiner missed a foul shot but the Fillies did not block out and Condon got the rebound and ran out the clock.

Griener scored 7 of her team high 13 points in the fourth quarter comeback.

Heppner outrebounded the visitors 32-28 with Abrams leading the home team with 11.

Kincaid led the team in scoring with 14 points. Devin scored 8, Grieb 5, Conner and Abrams 4 each and Sandra Ward scored 2 points.

Heppner shot 51 percent, 31-of-61, from the field. Condon made only 19-of-48, for 40 percent.

American colonists make change by breaking dollars into bits

Early American colonists had a do-it-yourself way of making change. If they needed a quarter, they simply broke two bits off of a dollar coin, which was made of soft silver. For 50 cents, four bits. Some people still use the names today. National Geographic World magazine says.
