A hearing on the City of Irrigon's budget took place at the March 11 Council session. The $114,509 total budget was adopted by the council and calls for $26,900 in taxes to balance. Since this amount is $10,600 more than the six percent limitation allows, the implementing of the budget is dependent on approval of a new tax base measure, which will be submitted in the May 20 primary election. A new tax base of $30,000 is being requested but only the $26,000 amount is planned for use beginning July 1 this year.

The present levy is $2.53 per $1,000 true cash value and the new levy would be $4.03 per $1,000 should evaluation remain the same.

Failure of the tax base election in May would require a cut in city staff to revise the budget, within the allowable six percent increase.

In other business, the council granted a 25-year franchise to Boardman Community TV Systems to provide cable TV to the Irrigon Community. Service is to be provided in two years.

Vitro Engineering discussed a number of needed improvements in the water system. Several critical areas were authorized for improvement before the summer season. Service demands at the new Columbia Jr. High south of town, between Ordinance Road and First St. are expected to tax the system unless improvements are made.

The council decided not to put the issue of the method of selecting the mayor to the people at the May primary. The petition submitted in the February meeting by former mayor Chester Wilson was found to contain only 20 names that were qualified as city voters out of the 58 who signed the petitions left in places of business.

There were 34 buyers and 51 consignors represented at today's market.

Market trend: Chase Manhattan Bank raised the prime interest rate again today and the market dropped another notch lower. In some classes, we didn't have enough stock to test the market. We are hoping with spring grass just around the corner, prices will come up. Rising interest rates and the political scene make it difficult to predict market trends.

Following the sale on March 20, we will start having sales every other Thursday through April. La Grande Livestock will have an All Breed Bull Sale on Thursday, April 10. We would like all bulls to be consigned by Monday March 24. Call 963-2158 with your bull consignments.
