Holland cracks 2 homers

Sophomore Doug Holland cracked two home runs and went 4-4 with four RBI and Rick Cole hit a homer to lead the Heppner Mustang varsity boys baseball team to a 14-2 trouncing over Wasco County. It was the Columbia Basin League opening game for both teams in the West Division. Holland added two singles in the game and Ron Yong hit two doubles and a single as the Mustangs pounded out the 14 runs on 16 hits. Harry Groshens went 3-3.

John Bier was the pitching star for Heppner in the game as he threw a complete game two-hitter.

Heppner committed three errors while Wasco made two. In the second game of the doubleheader that was a non-conference game, Heppner was beaten 11-3.

Wasco jumped on starting pitcher Rick Cole early and never looked back.

Both teams had nine hits and one error.

Doug Holland went 2-4 and John Murray 2-3 at the plate. Heppner is now 2-6 this season.

Fishing season opens Saturday

A great many anglers are looking forward to the general opening of the trout season in Oregon Saturday, April 26, even though the day may be wet, windy and cold.

While that may be the opening day generally in Oregon, the season for many streams in Morrow County will be delayed until May 24. The Oregon Department of Fish & Wildlife says if one is doubt, the angling regulations may be checked.

Among streams in north-eastern Oregon that will have the later opening date are Willow Creek, Rhea Creek, Butter Creek and McKay Creek above the McKay National Wildlife Refuge.

Coastal rivers also will remain closed until May 24 to protect outmigrating salmon and steelhead.

A few other waters around the state will have different opening dates, and some waters are simply not stocked until later when water conditions and temperatures are better for fishing.

Whatever the weather and water conditions are, "opening day" is a ritual that comes off in spite of snow and high water, sports fishing enthusiasts say.
