

Lone tennis teams tie with Arlington; boys beat Sherman

Lone's boys tennis team tied Stanfield 2-2 and the girls team tied its match with the Tigers 1-1 in high school action last Friday.

The boys beat the team from Sherman 4-1 earlier in the week. Against Stanfield, Duane Fetsch lost his first singles match to Dan Martin 4-6 and 5-7. Craig Gutierrez won the second singles match 6-3 and 6-1.

In the first doubles match, Fetsch-Gutierrez lost a close match winning 6-4 in the first set but losing 5-7 in second set and 6-7 in the third set after a tie breaker. Chris Rietmann and Troy Lindstrom won the second doubles match 6-1 and 6-1. Donnie Taylor and Roger Childers played a pro set match and lost 8-1 but it did not count in the team match records. The girls tied their match

1-1 with Kate Gutierrez winning first singles 6-3 and 6-3 but the first doubles team of Gutierrez-Patti Taylor lost 6-0 and 6-1.

In a pro set match, Lisa Meyers lost 8-5 but it did not count in the team score. "It was the first match for Meyers and Taylor as we just picked them up this last week," Coach Duane Payne said.

Against Sherman, Mike Levitt won first singles 4-6, 6-3 and 6-1. Duane Fetsch won the second singles match 6-4 and 6-3 but the first doubles team of Levitt-Fetsch lost.

The second doubles team of Chris Rietmann-Troy Lindstrom won as did the third doubles team of Lindstrom-Roger Childers.
