Three Links Club met at the ranch home of Irene Padberg on Thursday afternoon with the chairman, Dorothy Burham, presiding. Plans were made for a card party and luncheon to be held on May 21, at the lodge hall. Lunch will be served from 12 noon to 1:30 p.m. with cards at 1:30 until the group has played five progressions. There will be prizes and refreshments. The group was told of an invitation to meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Henderson in Hood River in June for the regular meeting. A food sale was discussed for Father's Day with the ladies making baked goods with unusual names. The door prize was won by Joyce Buchanan, and the hostess served lovely refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Chick of Pendleton, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Rinehart of Ukiah and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Yocom were hosts and hostesses at a get-together on Sunday honoring the ladies' mother, Mrs. Venice Hendrickson, on her birthday. Dinner was enjoyed by the group as well as visiting in the afternoon. Present were the Dale Chick family of Pendleton and the Rinehart family of Ukiah, Mr. and Mrs. Yocom, Mrs. Dale Jones and two children and Millie Yocom of Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Soward were both injured in a car accident on Sunday on the airport hill. Both were hospitalized but have returned to their home now.

Mike Kane visited with his wife Leora and son Patrick last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Jones were Bend visitors at the Inn of the Seventh Mountain where Mrs. Jones attended the state board of directors meeting of the Oregon Lung Association. The group has accepted an invitation to meet in Pendleton for the annual meeting in 1981. There are further plans being made for welding workshops in different parts of the state, as well as money-raising projects. The emphysema workshops are also being planned, as that is an area in which much research is being done.

Billy Van Winkle visited his mother, Gladys Van Winkle, last week from John Day where he is employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Henderson and Mrs. Laddie Henderson of Hood River were Monday visitors at Lexington, where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Henderson's aunt, Mrs. Neil (Lulu) White of Pilot Rock, a former Lexington resident. Also here were former residents Mr. and Mrs. Vivian White and family, now of Pilot Rock.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Stambach of Haines were callers at the C.C. Jones Ranch for several days this week. They all visited on Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Jones and son Bobby at Camp 5 who are moving to Portland in June. Mr. Jones has been the last year the caretaker of the former town of Camp 5 while the houses are being moved away. Ethel Love of Baker came with the Stambachs and visited her sister, Mona Moore, in Heppner for a few days.

Mrs. Kenneth Palmer was a Portland visitor over the weekend, going down with her brother and wife Mr. and Mrs. Bud Marshall of Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Davidson and son were Lexington callers last week from their home in Boardman. While the men were doing repair work on their Lexington home Mrs. Davidson visited at the Van Winkle home.

Ticket reservations open for 'Tartuffe'

Ticket reservations for the College Community Theatre production of "Tartuffe" are currently being taken, according to Mary Alice Ridgway, CCT box office director.

The comedy by Moliere is directed by Bob Hirsch and will be performed this Friday, Saturday and Sunday and on May 22, 23, and 24. All performances begin at 8 p.m. except for Sunday, May 18, which is a matinee performance and set to start at 3 p.m.

Reservations are limited to season ticket holders and are available by mail in care of Theatre Tickets, Blue Mountain Community College, P.O. Box 100, Pendleton, Oregon 97801.

Persons without season tickets may buy tickets at the door of each performance. Students at Blue Mountain Community College and senior citizens holding BMCC Golden Age cards are admitted to the performances free.

Hermiston man hailed by colleges

Harmon Springer, Blue Mountain Community College board member from Hermiston, was honored for 10 years of continuous service at the Oregon Community College Association annual spring conference.

Springer was presented with OCCA's "Decade of Dedication Award" for his years of service on the board.

At the same meeting, college President Ron Daniels was elected to the OCCA four-member executive board of directors. Daniels also served as master of ceremonies for the group's awards banquet.

Church women in Ione discuss ideas for auction scheduled June 7

At a recent meeting of the women of the United Church of Christ in Ione, ideas were discussed and plans formulated for the coming June 7 auction.

Katherine Lindstrom and Birdine Tullis are co-chairmen of the Country Store. There will be various items for sale including sewing and needlework, crafts, foods and other items.

The chairmen have some new ideas for this year that will include a "Christmas in June" corner with decorations and gifts for grandchildren; and a table for crafty people.

Fred and Helen Nelson will grind wheat to be sold in the country store.

If anyone has any items to donate call Bill Rietmann and he will make arrangements to pick them up.

May 27 at 8 p.m. there will be a meeting for everyone involved in the auction.

June 3, 5, and 6 will be country store workdays.

June 6 will be play day for elementary children so that parents can work.

June 7 is AUCTION DAY.
