

Youth track meet slated

All youth, not participating on a school track team, are invited to attend the Centennial Youth Track and Field Meet, June 28 at 9 a.m. at the B.M.C.C. Track Stadium. Ages that may participate are one through 15 years as of August 31.

This event is being sponsored by the Pendleton Optimist Club and the Parks and Recreation Department. No pre-registration is necessary, and contestants may sign up at the time of the event. Ribbons will be presented by the Optimists to the first through sixth places in field events and each heat of the track events. The nine to 15 year winners may be eligible to compete in the Hershey's State Track and Field Meet in Eugene with the victors going on to the Regional and National Meets.

All youngsters from Pendleton and the surrounding communities are welcome to participate. Rules include no spiked shoes, no starting blocks, and each entrant may compete in three events.

Field events scheduled are standing long jump and softball throw. Track events include 50, 100, 200 and 400 meter dashes, the 800 and 1500 meter run and the 400 meter relay.

For further information contestants may call the Pendleton Parks and Recreation Department at 276-1811.

Family barbecue marks tourney at Willow Creek golf links in Heppner

A family barbecue took place June 15 at Willow Creek Country Club.

More than 20 golfers participated in the team scramble play.

They and their families enjoyed a potluck supper afterward.

Winning teams, shooting even par, were: Dave and Jan Thom and Ed and Bev Gunderson; and the team of Charles Starks, Inez Irwin, and Ray Massey.

Willow Creek Country Club was the scene June 10 of the Fun Day for lady golfers and their local guests.

Linda Shaw and Bev Wilson were in charge of the event, which featured nine holes of team scramble play and obstacles on each hole. Ladies of the club contributed salads

Regular Sunday morning play June 15 at Willow Creek Country Club had 16 men participating.

Dale Holland got the most unusual birdie of the season, hitting (and killing) a sparrow in mid-flight with his tee shot on No. 6. He stated that the occurrence effectively took him out of the running for long drive.

Winners were: low-gross-Wayland Hyatt (65); low net-Dave Hanna (47); long drive and least putts-Bob Jepsen.

Condon women host golfers

The women of the Condon Golf Club hosted Willow Creek and Kinzua Hills at a nine hole visitation June 11.

Eight women from Willow Creek attended. Local winners were: 1st flight-Eddi Skow, low gross, and Harriett Evans, low net; 2nd flight-Fran Crook, low gross, and Muriel Palmer, low net. Eddi Skow had long drive for Willow Creek and also won a door prize.

Linda Shaw, and Bev Wilson, and the team of Kitty Coon, Pat Lanford, and Lorena Jones.

Second place was awarded to the team of Fran Crook, Janice Cutsforth, Dorothy Hawkins, and Katharine Lindstrom.

Dorothy Hawkins and Bev Wilson tied for long drive on No. 1 (teeing off while standing on bedsprings), and Linda Shaw had long drive on No. 6 (teeing off while blindfolded). Door prizes were won by Lois Hunt and Juanita Carmichael.

Summer reading program set for lone children

A summer reading program at the lone school library is set to begin June 17.

The reading program will be every Tuesday until July 22, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

From June 24 to July 22, there will be a story hour provided by the American Association of University Women on Tuesdays, beginning at 3 p.m. The story hour is for preschool through primary school children.

There will be an awards party July 29 at 2 p.m. for the participants in the summer

Tuesday winners

Winners of Tuesday afternoon women's play June 10 at Willow Creek Country Club were Fran Crook, low gross, and Roxie Lovgren, low net.

Hospital Notes

Jodi Padberg of Lexington was the only patient admitted to Pioneer Memorial Hospital in Heppner this past week who was still in the hospital Monday afternoon.

Florence McMillan of Lexington has been dismissed and so were Dee Cox Jr. of Heppner and Anna Shaffer of Condon.

Maynard Seefeldt of Lexington was transferred to a Walla Walla, Wash. hospital.

Under favorable conditions, a mature earthworm can produce 1,500 offspring a year.

Heppner forest planning meet set

A public meeting to discuss forest planning in the Umatilla National Forest will take place in Heppner July 15 at 7:30 p.m. at the Heppner Elementary School in the multi-purpose room.

Persons who cannot make that meeting may attend one July 10 in Pendleton at Blue lands, soils and facilities.

The issues will be identified, planning criteria made, data and information collected, management analyzed, alternatives formulated, alternative effects estimated, alternatives evaluated, alternatives selected, alternatives implemented and the chosen alternatives monitored and evaluated.

Any questions or comments about the Forest Plan Report may be directed to Forest Planner, Umatilla National Forest, 2517 S.W. Hailey Ave. in Pendleton, 97801.

has about the forest, according to Ben Simimoo, Heppner district ranger.

Congress has charged the Forest Service with the task of preparing a long-range comprehensive plan for all National Forests. Resource management plans will be formed at the national, regional and forest levels.

Twelve elements will be considered in the plan, which is set to be completed in 1983, and they are: Recreation, wilderness, wildlife and fish, range, timber, water, minerals, human and community development with employment opportunities, protection, lands, soils and facilities.

Grain farmers to get price loan extension

Grain farmers in the Pacific Northwest whose government price support loans are scheduled to be repaid before Sept. 30 will be given an extension, said Secretary of Agriculture Bob Bergland.

The extension is for barley, oats and wheat loans make in Idaho, Montana, Oregon and Washington.

Bergland said he took the action because waterways in the area continue to be partially clogged with volcanic material deposited after the eruption of Mount St. Helens.

Camp Fire day camp

The annual day camp for the Oregon Trail Council Camp Fire Girls, Blue Birds and Blue Jays has been set for July 28, 29 and 30.

All members can register for the camp.

Any other children who are interested and are not members of the groups are also welcome if they have at least finished the first grade.

Volunteers are needed for leaders and assistants at the camp.

For more information call Irene Plocharsky at 676-5594 or Janet Greenup at 676-5822.

The Heppner swim team began practicing Sunday in the newly opened municipal pool. Here, members of the team work on their back strokes. The pool is open for water-safety instruction, team sports and recreational swimming, and will remain open through the summer—depending on the outcome of Heppner's budget election next Tuesday.

On first day 110 take plunge at Heppner pool

About 110 persons attended the free open swim at the opening of the Heppner Swimming Pool last Sunday, said Scott McEwen, pool manager.

The Heppner swim team, coached by McEwen, also began having turnouts. The team will have two squads with the A squad for advanced swimmers and B squad for beginners.

"We need more people on the team," McEwen said.

Basque barbecue slated

The Lee Riders will serve an authentic Basque Barbeque at Roy Raley Park July 4 from noon to 5 p.m. It will be held in conjunction with the observance of Pendleton's Centennial celebration.

The menu will include barbecued lamb, coleslaw, hot bread, baked beans, and a beverage. Ticket sales will be limited to 3,000 persons. Tickets are available from the Centennial Store, Club Cigar Store, Pacific Power and Light office, and from members of Lee Riders. Prices are $6 for adults and $4 for children 12 and under. The ticket sale will conclude June 20.

Little League begins final week of play in Heppner

Heppner Little League baseball action begins its final week of regularly scheduled play tonight with the Heppner Giants playing the lone Indians.

The games are played at the county fairground's fenced-in Little League field with infield practice beginning at 5:45 p.m. and the games starting at 7 p.m. Tomorrow night, the Heppner Braves play the Fossil Rangers. There are no games on the weekends.

The Giants play the Heppner Dodgers June 23 and the Rangers also play the Condon Angels that day. The Indians play the Braves June 24 and the Dodgers play the Rangers June 25.

June 26 the Giants tangle with the Braves and the Angels take on the Indians June 27.

Heide Samples pitches for the first-place Steiger team while volunteer umpire Ken Fifield observes. Little League play in Heppner is in its final week.

Girls softball play to close tonight

Willow Creek Girls Softball League regularly scheduled play ends tonight with the Morrow County Grain Growers and Steigers playing Les Schwab.

Steigers, coached by Paul Sumner and assisted by Albert Conner, is currently in first place.

The 76ers play the Redwings at the Heppner Grade School field and the Steigers play Les Schwab at the county fairgrounds field. Both games start at 6:30 p.m.

Five teams are participating in the girls league this season. Lucy Tworek and Chris Crowell coach the Lone team, Jean Strange and Phyllis Payne coach Les Schwab, Judy Wright and Vi Wilgers coach the Redwings and Glen Ward and Jim Van Winkle coach the 76ers.

The girls league plays with some special rules including a 10-run limit per inning except for the last inning of the six-inning games, home teams provide the umpires, pitches are underhand with a three-foot arch, there is no infield fly rule, pitchers must stand at least 10 steps away from home plate, and the home team passes a hat at each game for public donations for the league.

Glen Ward is the league president.

In last week's games, the scores were: 76ers 33 and Lone 22, Les Schwab 19 and Steigers 35, Redwings 18 and the 76ers 14, Steigers 20 and Lone 14, and the Steigers 11 and the 76ers 10.

Little League scores

In last week's Heppner Little League baseball play, the league-leading Condon Angels won two more games.

The Angels beat the Heppner Giants 10 to 5 and the Lone Indians 14 to 7.

In other league games, the Giants came back to beat the Heppner Dodgers 8 to 7 and the Dodgers won a game earlier in the week edging the Heppner Braves 8 to 7.

Lone's Indians won their second game of the season beating the winless Fossil Rangers 25 to 20.
