

Heppner gardeners score in flower show

by Justine Weatherford

On July 4 and July 5 the two garden clubs of Pendleton arranged a standard flower show "The Centennial of Flowers" as their contribution to the commemoration of their city's 100th birthday. The Dirt Dabblers and The Pendleton Garden Club, both members of the Oregon State Federation of Garden Clubs, Inc. and the National Council of State Garden Clubs, invited public participation in the show at the Hawthorne School, their first public show since 1961.

Alberta Johannes, Jane Rawlins and Justine Weatherford transported flower specimens and arrangements to Pendleton on Saturday, and each scored well. Heppner Garden Club President Julia Hill and her husband Harold also attended the show, and photographer Harold took colored pictures of some of the outstanding entries.

Alberta rated third place ribbons for her miniature pink rose and for her bachelor buttons; Jane Rawlins' delphiniums swept that competition, and her mixed bouquet was judged second in its class.

Justine's rose placed second, and she rated one first and one second on her artistic designs (flower arrangements). These three members of the Heppner Garden Club were the only Morrow County residents who visited the show.

Camp slated at EOSC

All Star Cheerleader Conference will conduct one of their national cheerleader camps at Eastern Oregon State College in LaGrande the week of August 4 to 8.

Heppner High School cheerleaders are planning to attend. The ASCC national instructional staff of college cheerleaders come from colleges and universities all over the United States to offer an extensive program in cheerleading technique, pom routines, gymnastics, rules seminars, fund raising ideas, mounts, spirit rallies, uniform selection, etc. The ASCC staff resides right in the dorm with the girls and provides 24 hour supervision and security.

Heppner News

Fourth of July weekend visitors at the Sykes' home in Heppner were David's sister and family, Vickie and Charlie Lewis and baby, Max, of Portland.

The Lewises and the Sykes enjoyed a Saturday outing to Bull Prairie Lake.

Next Monday, July 14, the Heppner club will gather for its monthly meeting in the Main Street City Park. The 7:30 meeting, to which any interested adult is invited, will consider several coming projects. They will hear about the state convention and will discuss plans for participating in the Fair.

Daniel Thompson, Vanessa Thew announce engagement

Vanessa Kay Thew and Daniel Ross Thompson, both of Ione, have announced their engagement to be married. Vanessa, 24, the daughter of Ann and Bill Thew of Crane,

Ore., is a sixth grade teacher in Ione. Daniel, 23, the son of Lewis and Donna Thompson of Ione is a ranch hand on the Cheney Ranches in Ione. The couple plans an August 16 wedding in a pastoral setting on the farm of the bride's grandparents Henry and Imogene Thew in Cove, Ore. Hues of brown, orange and gold and dried and fresh flowers will set the scene for the informal double ring ceremony. A reception barbecue will follow the ceremony. Victoria "Tori" Crawford, sister of the bride, will serve as matron of honor. William

"Jr." Huquenin, an army buddy of the groom, has been chosen as best man. The couple plans a weeklong honeymoon trip to Arizona to visit Dap's brother and other relatives along the way.
