There were 42 buyers and 73 consignors representing 8 counties at Thursday's sale.
 It was a short sale with most of the cattlemen staying in the field to take advantage of the sunshine. The grass is still good in most places and people aren't ready to market their stock.
 Killer cows were down due to depressed dress meat prices.
 We are expecting a larger run of cattle for our next sale. Thursday, July 24th.

Thank you, John B. Kirby
