Second annual hayride set for next weekend

Last summer some fun-loving folks cooked up an overnight weekend hayride into the mountains near Heppner. It proved to be a very successful fun activity.

Now, Dale Adlard, Doug Morrison, Ray Banks and Louann Cox have planned a Second Annual Weekend Hayride for next weekend, August 9 and 10. Folks who would like to join the fun-loving group need to get to the Shaw Creek turnout one mile below Cutsforth Park on the Willow Creek Highway by 7 p.m., this Saturday evening.

Those coming need to bring along some food for a Saturday night potluck that will go well with the chicken the committee will supply. Individuals will also need their sleeping bags, a lawn chair and any special drinks they enjoy. Some pop and ice will be furnished.

On Sunday morning the arrangers will provide hot cakes, eggs and coffee. The cover charge for an individual is $3, however, couples will only need to pay $5.

It would be wise to contact Dale, Doug, Ray or Louann right away if you wish to go along so that they can know about how many to expect.

Willow Creek Little League All Stars don't fare so well

The Willow Creek Little League All Star baseball team didn't fare so well at the recent District 5 tournament held in The Dalles.

Willow Creek Coach Ted Toll says the team lost to Hermiston, 13-1, in the opening game Thursday, July 31. From there the team went on to lose a squeaker, 15-16, to Jefferson County Friday, and then lost, 13-2, to Hood River in the final game Saturday. Ten teams were involved in the tournament, with a Cinderella team of Columbia in northern Morrow County coming out the winner in a 4-2 game over Hermiston in the final game.

"Hermiston was the favorite, but they lost in the last game," said Toll. "Columbia was the real story here because nobody expected them to win."

Prouty in Army Arctic training

Pfc. Bart E. Prouty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren R. Prouty, Route 2, Irrigon, recently participated with the 172nd Infantry Brigade in "Arctic Circle," a training exercise in Alaska.

The training and evaluation exercise was a test of the Army and Air Force's capabilities to coordinate efforts under Arctic field conditions.

Prouty is assigned to the brigade at Fort Wainwright, Alaska. His wife, Carolyn, is with him near the fort.
