

Juvenile services hearings

The Juvenile Service Commission of Morrow County will hold public hearings in Heppner and Boardman on Thursday, Sept. 4, at 7:30 p.m. to identify the needs of Morrow County's youth.

A commission spokesperson says the local commission hopes to qualify Morrow County for state funds made available by the community Juvenile Services Act and invites local organizations and agencies to submit funding proposals.

The Juvenile Services Act came into being as the result of a governor's task force which found that many adult offenders in the states correctional systems had records as juveniles. The task force also learned that Oregon's training schools, MacLaren and Hillcrest are overcrowded. Other placement centers are filled to capacity, and they often have long waiting lists too.

The task force recommended to the governor that an effort be made to rehabilitate youthful offenders in their own homes and communities before criminal patterns become established.

Senate Bill 121 (ORS 417.400-417.490), known as the Community Juvenile Services Act, makes state monies available to counties that wish to establish plans designed to steer juveniles into programs beneficial for their growth and rehabilitation.

Heppner's public hearing will be held at the County Court House; Boardman's will be held in the city council chambers. Both meetings will convene at 7:30 p.m.

Episcopal Diocese to hold fund raising event

Ascension School, the camp and conference center of the Episcopal Diocese of Eastern Oregon, is holding a two-day fund raising event on Labor Day Weekend, August 30 and 31.

An auction will be held on Aug. 30, featuring antiques, wood stoves, appliances, 10-speed bikes, a scooter, a boat, gift certificates, 10 hours of landscaping, among other things. The auction will begin at 10 a.m. and continue until 2 p.m. "Special interest" items will be auctioned at noon. Included are an Edison phonograph and 30 cylinders of music, rare currency, stamps, coins and books.

The barn sale will feature treasures from the homes of people all over the Northwest. Clothes, dishes, tools, knickknacks, small appliances, white elephants, books and other items will be sold. The flea market will include local people selling jewelry, ceramics, books and other items. The barn sale and flea market will run from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday, Aug. 30, and 1 to 4 p.m. on Sunday, Aug. 31.

The barbecue will feature homemade french bread, barbecued beef, cole slaw, baked beans, home made cookies and coffee or cold drinks. Donations will be $5 a plate; 12 and under, $3 a plate, with a $15 maximum for families. The dinner will be served from 12 to 3 p.m. on Saturday, August 30, and from 1 to 3 p.m. on Sunday, Aug. 31.

The funds from this weekend will be used for the operation and capital improvements of Ascension School Camp and Conference Center. All activities will take place on the Ascension School campus, located 16 miles S.E. of La Grande, Oregon.
