

Lexington news

• Delpha Jones • 989-8189

The annual get-together of the descendants of Pheobe and William B. Gikison, pioneers of Baker County, was held at the C.C. Jones ranch on Saturday, Sept. 13. The day started with an early morning breakfast for the guests. Dinner at 2 p.m. was followed by an afternoon of visiting, horse shoe pitching and later in the evening, slides of former family get-togethers. This is known as the "Cousins Reunion" picnic and is held at different areas each year. One of the highlights of the day was a call from Mr. and Mrs. Dale Jones and Bobby of Portland, former Camp 5 residents now residing in Portland, who were unable to be present.

Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. John Mitchell of Sumpter, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Payton of Halfway, Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Scribner and son and Bonita Stitts of Yakima, Hilda McComber of Mt. Vernon, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Van Leuven of La Grande, and Mr. and Mrs. Ike Van Leuven of Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crow of Hermiston, Enid Stambach and son, Douglas Miguel, of Haines, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Harrison of Beaverton, Charlene Whitney and Frank Wilcox of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jones and Chris and Mike and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Jones of Lexington.

An election of officers was held with the following results: Chairwoman - Enid Stambach, vice - chairman - Everett Payton, and secretary - Jessie Harrison. The next meeting is scheduled for the last Saturday in August at the Red Bridge Park near Starkey.

The Three Links Club met at the lodge hall on Thursday afternoon for the regular meeting with the hostess Josie Peck in charge. Plans were discussed for the fall activities, and the bazaar which is held yearly. A card party is planned Saturday, Sept. 27, at 7:30 p.m. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Enid Stambach and grandson, Douglas Miguel, of Haines have been visitors at the C.C. Jones ranch for the last week.

Bob Miller spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn W. Miller at their home in Hermiston.

Larry Samblast of Portland visited Sunday at the Earl Miller home.

Leora Kane and son, Patrick have returned to their home after several days at the home of a sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bradd.

Visitors at the home of Hazel Jackson and Gladys VanWinkle were their sister Alta, and husband from Salem and a niece, Judy Melvin, of Madras. Also visiting on Sunday with his mother, Gladys, was Donald VanWinkle from Tacoma, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cool of Pendleton visited her mother, Florence McMillan, on Monday.

AAUW meeting features a taste of the world

The Sept. 10 meeting of the American Association of University Women (AAUW) gave members and guests a taste of the Orient, Europe and Africa - literally. The focus of the first meeting of the year was an international potluck dinner held at the home of Betty Rietmann, lone.

After the meal, introductions, reading of minutes and a financial report, President Susan Schuboth explained AAUW philosophy and AAUW stances on current political and social issues.

It was decided that meetings be held on the second Wednesday of each month.

Alpha Theta ESA holds initial fall meet

The September meeting of Alpha Theta E.S.A. was held at the home of Alpha Theta President, LaRae Kinde. Ways and Means Chairperson Bebe Munkers, reporting on the Queen's Luncheon served in August, said that a chef's salad had been well received by the visiting courts.

Announcements included: -the impending Candidates Fair, which is sponsored by AAUW, and scheduled for Oct. 1, at 7 p.m.

-an AAUW meeting in Ontario on Sept. 27, which Marian Abrams indicated she would attend.

-a Parent Effectiveness Training Workshop which was to have taken place in lone on Saturday, Sept. 13.

-a graduate level course entitled "Education of the Exceptional Child," to be given by Dr. McIntyre at Lexington. Those interested should contact John Edmundson at the school district office.

-formation of a child care co-op in the Heppner, Lexington and lone areas.

-the Adult Education program for anyone 16 and over who is not in school and would like to complete his or her education. Contact Joy Krein for more information.

-the pre-Christmas Art-factory, which is slated for Dec. 6.

-the Energy Fair, which is scheduled for November.

-the Listening Post Program instigated by Governor Atiyeh. Karen Beck volunteered to represent the local AAUW branch.

The theme will be "Roll Out the Barrel for E.S.A."

Educational will be in an international vein with studies being done on Germany, Scotland, France, Ireland and others. Special emphasis will be on cooking and foods of these countries.

Plans for a fall rush were introduced by Verna Brinda.

The September meeting of Alpha Theta E.S.A. was held at the home of Alpha Theta President, LaRae Kinde.

Ways and Means Chairperson Bebe Munkers, reporting on the Queen's Luncheon served in August, said that a chef's salad had been well received by the visiting courts.

Announcements included: -the impending Candidates Fair, which is sponsored by AAUW, and scheduled for Oct. 1, at 7 p.m.

-an AAUW meeting in Ontario on Sept. 27, which Marian Abrams indicated she would attend.

-a Parent Effectiveness Training Workshop which was to have taken place in lone on Saturday, Sept. 13.

-a graduate level course entitled "Education of the Exceptional Child," to be given by Dr. McIntyre at Lexington. Those interested should contact John Edmundson at the school district office.

-formation of a child care co-op in the Heppner, Lexington and lone areas.

-the Adult Education program for anyone 16 and over who is not in school and would like to complete his or her education. Contact Joy Krein for more information.

-the pre-Christmas Art-factory, which is slated for Dec. 6.

-the Energy Fair, which is scheduled for November.

-the Listening Post Program instigated by Governor Atiyeh. Karen Beck volunteered to represent the local AAUW branch.

The theme will be "Roll Out the Barrel for E.S.A."

Educational will be in an international vein with studies being done on Germany, Scotland, France, Ireland and others. Special emphasis will be on cooking and foods of these countries.

Plans for a fall rush were introduced by Verna Brinda.

The September meeting of Alpha Theta E.S.A. was held at the home of Alpha Theta President, LaRae Kinde.

Ways and Means Chairperson Bebe Munkers, reporting on the Queen's Luncheon served in August, said that a chef's salad had been well received by the visiting courts.

Announcements included: -the impending Candidates Fair, which is sponsored by AAUW, and scheduled for Oct. 1, at 7 p.m.

-an AAUW meeting in Ontario on Sept. 27, which Marian Abrams indicated she would attend.

-a Parent Effectiveness Training Workshop which was to have taken place in lone on Saturday, Sept. 13.

-a graduate level course entitled "Education of the Exceptional Child," to be given by Dr. McIntyre at Lexington. Those interested should contact John Edmundson at the school district office.

-formation of a child care co-op in the Heppner, Lexington and lone areas.

-the Adult Education program for anyone 16 and over who is not in school and would like to complete his or her education. Contact Joy Krein for more information.

-the pre-Christmas Art-factory, which is slated for Dec. 6.

-the Energy Fair, which is scheduled for November.

-the Listening Post Program instigated by Governor Atiyeh. Karen Beck volunteered to represent the local AAUW branch.

The theme will be "Roll Out the Barrel for E.S.A."

Educational will be in an international vein with studies being done on Germany, Scotland, France, Ireland and others. Special emphasis will be on cooking and foods of these countries.

Plans for a fall rush were introduced by Verna Brinda.

The September meeting of Alpha Theta E.S.A. was held at the home of Alpha Theta President, LaRae Kinde.

Ways and Means Chairperson Bebe Munkers, reporting on the Queen's Luncheon served in August, said that a chef's salad had been well received by the visiting courts.

Announcements included: -the impending Candidates Fair, which is sponsored by AAUW, and scheduled for Oct. 1, at 7 p.m.

-an AAUW meeting in Ontario on Sept. 27, which Marian Abrams indicated she would attend.

-a Parent Effectiveness Training Workshop which was to have taken place in lone on Saturday, Sept. 13.

-a graduate level course entitled "Education of the Exceptional Child," to be given by Dr. McIntyre at Lexington. Those interested should contact John Edmundson at the school district office.

-formation of a child care co-op in the Heppner, Lexington and lone areas.

-the Adult Education program for anyone 16 and over who is not in school and would like to complete his or her education. Contact Joy Krein for more information.

-the pre-Christmas Art-factory, which is slated for Dec. 6.

-the Energy Fair, which is scheduled for November.

-the Listening Post Program instigated by Governor Atiyeh. Karen Beck volunteered to represent the local AAUW branch.

The theme will be "Roll Out the Barrel for E.S.A."

Educational will be in an international vein with studies being done on Germany, Scotland, France, Ireland and others. Special emphasis will be on cooking and foods of these countries.

Plans for a fall rush were introduced by Verna Brinda.

The September meeting of Alpha Theta E.S.A. was held at the home of Alpha Theta President, LaRae Kinde.

Ways and Means Chairperson Bebe Munkers, reporting on the Queen's Luncheon served in August, said that a chef's salad had been well received by the visiting courts.

Announcements included: -the impending Candidates Fair, which is sponsored by AAUW, and scheduled for Oct. 1, at 7 p.m.

-an AAUW meeting in Ontario on Sept. 27, which Marian Abrams indicated she would attend.

-a Parent Effectiveness Training Workshop which was to have taken place in lone on Saturday, Sept. 13.

-a graduate level course entitled "Education of the Exceptional Child," to be given by Dr. McIntyre at Lexington. Those interested should contact John Edmundson at the school district office.

-formation of a child care co-op in the Heppner, Lexington and lone areas.

-the Adult Education program for anyone 16 and over who is not in school and would like to complete his or her education. Contact Joy Krein for more information.

-the pre-Christmas Art-factory, which is slated for Dec. 6.

-the Energy Fair, which is scheduled for November.

-the Listening Post Program instigated by Governor Atiyeh. Karen Beck volunteered to represent the local AAUW branch.

The theme will be "Roll Out the Barrel for E.S.A."

Educational will be in an international vein with studies being done on Germany, Scotland, France, Ireland and others. Special emphasis will be on cooking and foods of these countries.

Plans for a fall rush were introduced by Verna Brinda.

The September meeting of Alpha Theta E.S.A. was held at the home of Alpha Theta President, LaRae Kinde.

Ways and Means Chairperson Bebe Munkers, reporting on the Queen's Luncheon served in August, said that a chef's salad had been well received by the visiting courts.

Announcements included: -the impending Candidates Fair, which is sponsored by AAUW, and scheduled for Oct. 1, at 7 p.m.

-an AAUW meeting in Ontario on Sept. 27, which Marian Abrams indicated she would attend.

-a Parent Effectiveness Training Workshop which was to have taken place in lone on Saturday, Sept. 13.

-a graduate level course entitled "Education of the Exceptional Child," to be given by Dr. McIntyre at Lexington. Those interested should contact John Edmundson at the school district office.

Irrigon news

• Francis Rose Wilson • 922-3352

A surprise bridal shower was given Friday evening for Tammy Sims at the home of Mrs. Paul Grigsby in Irrigon. Mrs. Grigsby was assisted by Nelta Grigsby and Chris Grigsby.

Tammy Sims is the bride-elect of George Grigsby, both of Irrigon. The couple plan to be married Oct. 10 at the Irrigon Assembly of God Church.

Umatilla Ready-Mix is Still in Business in Heppner

Cement deliveries scheduled twice weekly to South Morrow County. Regularly on Wednesdays and Fridays for dispatch

call collect
567-6173

Correction

A story in the Sept. 11 Gazette-Times announcing a Brazilian Embroidery class neglected to include the meeting place.

The class will meet at the Neighborhood Center in Heppner on Friday, Sept. 19, at 2 p.m.

Those who have already signed up and anyone else interested in the class are invited to attend.

For more information, contact Nadine Bailey, 376-8281.

Historical Soc. meeting slated

by Delpha Jones

The Morrow County Historical Society will meet at the Lexington Grange Hall on Sunday, September 28, at 1 p.m., starting with a potluck dinner which will be followed by a program and business meeting.

The speaker for the afternoon will be Jack Evans, librarian of Eastern Oregon College of Education at La Grande. Mr. Evans was born and raised in Walla Walla County and is interested in local history and the restoration of old homes. He will bring slides of Eastern Oregon houses of interest. Evans is a graduate of the University of Oregon with his master's in library science.

Meg and Rod Murray are now running the Murray Drug Store in Heppner. The Murray's have owned the store since 1959. Their son and daughter in law, Mark and Sandy Murray have been operating the store since 1972. Mark and Sandy are now in Prairie City, where they have purchased a drug store.

Degree of Honor Protective Soc. sets guest eve.

September 23, at 6:30 p.m. the Degree of Honor Protective Society is observing guest night with a potluck dinner. Husbands of members are invited. Members are asked to bring a guest.

Slides of the Passion Play recently held in Germany will be shown by Irene Anhorn. Irene's sister, Mary Goheen, attended the play in July.

BMCC extension classes to begin

Blue Mountain Community College fall extension classes in Heppner, lone and Lexington will be getting underway soon, with most of them beginning the week of Sept. 29, says BMCC area coordinator Nancy Brownfield.

Area classes follow:

EMT II, 7-10 p.m., M. Hosp., Hanna; Bus. Machines - a short course, 7-10 p.m., M. HHS, Pilgrim; Bookkeeping, 7-10 p.m., M. Lex., Deeter; Diesel Fuel Systems, 7-10 p.m., MTW, Hepp, Hulick; Supervisory Prob. Solving, 7-10 p.m., MT, Hepp, Anderson; Tole Painting - Advanced, 7-10 p.m., T. Lex., Piper; Cake Decorating, 7-10 p.m., W. lone, McElligott; Guitar-Beginning, 7-9 p.m., M. Hepp, Mathews; Aerobic Dance, 7-8 p.m., MTH, Hepp, Hughes; Bridge, 7-9 p.m., T. Lex., Hunt; Expectant Parents, 7-9 p.m., T. Hepp, Adleman; Christmas Cookie Workshop, $10 total cost, 9 a.m. - 4 p.m., Sat., Hepp, Panter.

For more information, contact Brownfield at 676-5039.

RUBBER STAMPS

Made To Order

676-9228

HARVEST

IS OVER

IT'S TIME TO FIX YOUR EQUIPMENT

TO BE SURE THAT ALL YOUR EQUIPMENT IS

VISIT OUR PARTS DEPT. FOR ALL YOUR REPAIR NEEDS!!

Morrow County Grain Growers INC.

Lexington 989-8221

LOOK

ELECTRIC RAZOR REPAIR CLINIC

ONE DAY ONLY THURSDAY

SEPTEMBER 18, 1980

TUNE UP SPECIAL

For this amazing low price we'll disassemble the entire shaver, clean, lubricate, adjust to mfg. specs., install new points or brushes where needed, new hairstoppers and test cords and/or charges on cordless models. Bring chargers for free testing.

All This For Only . . . $7.95

Pay Less Drug Store

Hermiston, Oregon

OPEN DAILY 9 to 9
930 Hwy. 395 South OPEN SUNDAY 10 to 5