

26th annual Shrine Food Caravan slated Oct. 17

The annual Al Kader Shrine Food Caravan from Eastern Oregon, which is loaded with food for the Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children, is scheduled for Friday, October 17. This year marks the 26th consecutive trek which brings nourishing supplies to Portland.

The lengthy line of cars and trucks is due to arrive at the 82nd & Sandy site of the Shrine Hospital at about 4:30 p.m., where DeMolay groups and Portland Shriners will assist in the unloading of the cargoes.

Over 80 cars, trucks, pickups and trailers are voluntary participants in the caravan. The procession originates at 7 a.m. in Ontario, where various drivers assemble from the Snake River Valley in both Oregon and Idaho, then proceed on the freeway, with other vehicles joining the excursion at various stops along the 375 mile route.

Each vehicle carries donated food from various individuals, Shrine Clubs, and other groups of Eastern Oregon, which is delivered to the hospital storerooms. The merchandise includes canned goods, fresh fruits, vegetables and meats, frozen foods, flour, sugar, and assorted other items. Some caravanners also bring apparel and toys for the young patients.

The long procession is escorted by the Oregon State Police to Troutdale, where the line of vehicles is met by the Multnomah County Sheriff's Patrol in the final lap to the hospital at 82nd & Sandy.

Bill Kidder, of Ontario, is again the 1980 "wagon master" of the caravan, with John Coats and Chuck Faes coordinating the activity in Portland. Gary Mier, junior counselor of DeMolay, is the organizer of groups to assist the unloading of the vehicles.

During the past 25 years it is estimated the Food Caravan has delivered over 30,000 tons of food, with a dollar value of about a million dollars. Shriners expect to have another substantial donation this year.

Following the long drive in this 26th Annual Shrine Food Caravan, all the weary drivers will gather at the Flamingo Motel in Parkrose, where they will join with welcoming Portland Shriners in a celebration of dinner and dancing.

The caravan will arrive at LaGrande at the Husky Truck Stop at 8:30 a.m., at Pendleton at 10:15 a.m. on the 84N East exit, at McNary at 11:30 a.m. at the Quartermaster. The caravan will also proceed through Stanfield Hermiston, Umatilla and Irrigon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Steagall have returned home from an eight-day trip to the Hawaiian Islands. The trip was a senior citizen tour leaving Portland airport with 181 members. As the group was leaving the islands, they met the next planned flight and greeted Mr. Steagall's sister, Lola Breeding from Irrigon, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Palmer from Heppner and Geneva Palmer and daughter-in-law, Mary Anne, from Ione.

Mrs. Bertie Pappas who has spent several weeks with her sister, Annetta Klinger, returned this week to her home in Fresno, Calif.

The Rhea Creek Home Extension group met at the Lexington IOOF hall on Tuesday for their regular meeting with hostess, Joyce Buchanan, and co-hostess, Virginia Peck, in charge. The meeting was on different cuts of meat and pricing with some discussion on the least expensive to purchase. A delicious dinner was enjoyed. The next meeting is planned for the Ruth McCabe home.

Three Links Club of Holly Rebekah Lodge met at the Kenneth Palmer ranch on Thursday with Mrs. Palmer as hostess. Plans were discussed for the fall activities. The meeting was followed by lovely refreshments by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Jones are vacationing in Utah and Nevada. They are expected home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Miller were Lexington callers Sunday from their home in Hermiston.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Chick and family visited her mother, Venice Hendrickson, over the weekend.

Aerobic dance open in Heppner

Aerobic Dancing classes start Monday, Oct. 20, in Heppner and there is still room in the class, according to Nancy Brownfield, Blue Mountain Community College Heppner-area-class coordinator.

"We do, however, need a count of all those people who are interested in taking our aerobic dancing this fall to make sure we have room for everyone," Brownfield said. To reserve space in the class, students are asked to call 676-5039. The class will meet Monday and Thursday evenings from 7 to 8 p.m.

Brownfield ties the excitement about aerobic dancing to the national interest in physical fitness. "As a nation, we're sold on the importance of physical fitness, yet some people find jogging is not for them," Brownfield said. She added that the fun of aerobic dancing comes in doing the activity as a group. Like jogging, the exercises improve the cardio-vascular system.

About 35 women took the dancing class this past summer in Heppner. Brownfield herself took part in working out with the classes and said she noticed the effect immediately in lost inches off her waist.

"Our 50 year-old-students love aerobic dancing because they always wanted to be dancers," she said of the age range the classes attract. "The 30-40-year-old set wants to exercise, but in a fun way, and dancing to music is a lot of fun," she added.

Creative Arts group meets

The Morrow Co. Creative Arts group met at the Columbia Basin Electric building on Thursday afternoon. Spaces at the Artfactory were discussed. Also discussed was getting instructors for workshops.

The next meeting will be "come and paint" at the Fair Annex, Nov. 13, at 10 a.m. or whenever each member is able to make it. Those attending should bring a sack lunch if they plan to come for the day.

Members should be getting paintings ready to sell at the Artfactory. Dues are due, and election of officers for the coming year will be held at the Nov. meeting, also.

Tops Club to have speaker

The Heppner Tops Club No. OR 799 will have Peggy Fishburn as a guest speaker this Monday, Oct. 20. She will demonstrate making fruit leathers at the Neighborhood Center at 7 p.m.

All interested persons are invited to attend. Weigh-in will be at 6:30 p.m.
