

Sifting through the TIMES

With Justine Weatherford

Fifty Years Ago

Well it's all over and everyone seems to be agreed that "Aunt Lucia" provided an evening of excellent entertainment. The Tuesday and Wednesday evening presentations were attended by 800.

Marjorie Clark, Heppner, is serving as one of the cheerleaders at the University of Oregon this year.

A number of local Masons attended a district meeting at Echo Wednesday evening to hear an address by Dr. Otto C. Hagmeier, grand master for Oregon. A feature of the meeting was the presentation of 50-year jewels to Frank Gilliam and John Iler, two members of Heppner Lodge No. 69, AF and AM. Included in the party from Heppner were Mr. Gilliam, Mr. Iler, C.J. D. Bauman, Robert C. Wightman, W.E. Pruyn and F. S. Parker.

Mary A. Notson, reporter, states in her column, Women's Christian Temperance Union (WCTU) notes that Clarence Darrow, in an interview in Portland last week, said that one-fourth of the inmates of the federal prisons are violators of the liquor laws. This shows that Uncle Sam is doing some enforcing of prohibition.

Immediate and repeated evidence of the effectiveness of the "white fleet" of the state traffic division is shown in comments reaching the secretary of state, Hal E. Hoss, since the advent of white automobiles. While not all of the cars and motorcycles have been painted as yet, the value of the plan has been conclusively demonstrated, according to a survey made among motorists and traffic officers.

Extensive damage to the Paul Hisler home on Butter Creek was caused by lightning during Tuesday night's brief thunderstorm. The bolt either struck the house or the power lines leading to it. The quick storm which hit the Heppner area shortly after 7 p.m. didn't last long, but brought .17 inch of rain. Hisler said it only sprinkled in his area, but there was a report of a near cloudburst over the mountains toward Ukiah.

The fall meeting of the Morrow County Wheat Growers Association will be held Saturday at the Lexington Grange Hall starting at 10 a.m., it was announced this week by Frank Anderson, president.

Fire Wednesday morning caused extensive damage to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Munkers on south Court St. in Heppner. A fund was started up for the Munkers family who lost many of their belongings.

Promotion of District Ranger Wayne West from the Heppner district to a staff position in the division of wildlife and range management in the regional office in Portland, effective Nov. 6, was announced today by Umatilla Forest supervisor C. M. Rector. The vacancy will be filled on Nov. 6 by transfer of Ranger Victor L. Kreimeyer from the Bear Sleds district of the Wallawa-Whitman National Forest.

County school superintendent Jack Flug has called a convention of all school board members in Morrow County to be held Saturday, Oct. 22, at 1:30 p.m. at the courthouse in Heppner.

Word was received Saturday that the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo was rated 866 points out of a possible 1,000 in this year's County Fair Commission rating. Only one other year, since the rating system was begun in 1970, has the Morrow County Fair earned that many points.

Everett Harshman, Morrow County Assessor, says a new booklet, now available in his office, should help the public understand his responsibilities. Says Harshman, "I encourage people to pick one up when they are in the area or to write to my office for a copy."

The Ione High School classes of 1955-56 were well represented at a dinner reunion, Oct. 11, at the "Top of the Cosmo" in Portland. Phil

Emert, Salem, was master of ceremonies for the evening. Those attending from this area were: from Ione, Skip Pettyjohn, Virgil Morgan, Ron Palmateer, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hams, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin McCabe, Bob Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Rea and

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Padberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. Jerald Rea went from Lexington. Mr. and Mrs. Leland McKinney represented Boardman. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Len Schwarz, Mr. and Mrs. Bob DeSpain and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kilkenny attended from Heppner.

Sixty-six Morrow County women boarded chartered buses at 6:30 a.m., Oct. 8, for the long-planned trip to Portland to visit the Pittock Mansion and Japanese Gardens.

Carnation Club to have sale

At the Oct. 14th meeting of the Degree of Honor Protective Association, the Carnation Club voted to have a pie and coffee sale the evening of the moonlight sale, Oct. 30, from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Degree of Honor Hall.

On Oct. 28, Mrs. Bob Lowe will present ideas on Christmas gifts and the making of fancy cookies. Cookies and coffee will be served instead of the no-host snacks scheduled for refreshments.
