A potluck dinner in the honor of Darrell and Anna Lee James, former music leaders at the Ione United Church of Christ and former teachers at the Ione School, will be held following the 11 a.m. worship service on Sunday, Oct. 26. Darrell and Anna Lee will share some special music and

Darrell and Marilyn Reitmann will play duets on organ and piano, respectively, in the worship service. "The meal in their honor will give the congregation an opportunity to visit the Jameses," said the Reverend Cathy Barker, pastor at the Ione UCC.

Vandalism increasing

Vandalism and theft of property on the Umatilla National Forest is increasing according to H. B. Rudolph, forest supervisor. Rudolph reported that the forest had a loss of $7,000 in road signs alone last year. Forest officials are asking for public cooperation and are offering a $200 reward to any person offering information leading to the arrest and conviction of persons damaging or stealing Forest Service property. Information needed is the time, place, vehicle description, license number and description of the person or persons, says Rudolph. Theft of Forest Service property can result in up to a $10,000 fine and/or ten years imprisonment, he added.
