by Michelle LaRue

Ione demolished Dufur's chances for a victory at the Ione Homecoming game, Friday, Oct. 17. Ione scored the first four touchdowns on the way to a 64-20 victory. The first touchdown came on an 11-yard run by Gregg Rietmann, but the pass for the extra points failed. The Rangers were then forced to punt the ball. The Cards came back with a 58-yard scoring drive as Shawn LaRue went in from two yards out. LaRue also ran in for the extra points. The score was 14-0 at the end of the first quarter. Ione scored again on the third play of the second quarter as LaRue scampered in from the 13-yard line. Jeff

Hams ran in for the extra points. The Cardinals went into the locker room with a 22-0 lead. The Cards upped their lead to 30-0 as Rietmann opened the scoring for the third quarter with a 5-yard run into the end zone. LaRue scored the extra points. The Rangers first touchdown of the game came on a nine-yard pass from Joe Mead to Ed Tibbets. The extra points were good with a pass from Lance Archer to Carl McAllister. This made the score 30-0. The Cards returned with a touchdown as Rietmann ran in from the 23-yard line. LaRue pushed in for the extra points. Dufur then scored on a pass to Mead who went 58-yards for a touchdown. The extra points were not good. This made the score 38-14. The Cards again scored on an 11-yard Denny Starr pass to Treve Peterson. Extra points failed. Howard Leavitt then dashed 29 yards for his first touchdown of the game; the run for the extra points failed. Leavitt again scored as he sprinted in from 48 yards out. Craig Hams ran in for the extra points. Leavitt scored his third touchdown in a row as he ran in from the 39-yard line. The pass for the extra points failed. This made the score 64-14. Heppner quarterback John Bier (2) fights for yardage against Wahtonka defenders

by Andy Gorman

Last Friday night, Oct. 17, the Heppner Mustangs took on the Wahtonka Eagles and emerged with a victory. The final score was Heppner, 28, Wahtonka, 2. This cold evening turned out to be an exciting one. Right off the bat on the opening kick off John Murray made the ball fly 25 yards. The first offensive play that Wahtonka attempted was a pass by the quarterback, Brad Lawrence. Ken Stookey was on top of the play and deflected the pass just after the Wahtonka quarterback's fingers left the ball. During the next two plays Wahtonka gained some yardage and on the 4th down they attempted a field goal but missed by a long shot. Quarterback John Bier ran for a touchdown and Joe Mollahan was red hot and rollin'. He made the first extra point kick, 7-0. After Heppner had gained control of the ball again, they just couldn't make enough yardage for a first down. This prompted John Sporseen to say to Jeff Orr, "I want you to punt the ball." And punt he did - high and about 25 yards down field. The punt was almost perfect. The ball had enough hang time for all of the defensive players to be on top of the Wahtonka player who caught the ball. There was a fumble which Ken Stookey recovered. Earl Hammond was carried off the field after pulling a muscle, but was able to get back in the game later on. As soon as Wahtonka gained control of the ball they fumbled again. Wes Marlatt broke through the line and recovered the ball.

The first play of the 2nd quarter of offense for Heppner Bier made a 10-yard pass to Rick Cole. The very next play was a hand-off to John Murray for a touchdown. Joe Mollahan made the extra point kick. The score was then 14-0 in Heppner's favor. At the third quarter kickoff Rick Cole ran 56 yards for a touchdown and "ole Faithful," Joe Mollahan, who can't miss, made another extra point kick. The score was then Heppner, 21, Wahtonka, 0. After the kick off and Wahtonka used up their four downs, they still hadn't any yardage. The first play of Heppner's offense Bier made a handoff to John Murray who made the touchdown. Mollahan made the extra point which left the score 28-0 in Heppner's favor. The Mustangs were shoving the ball right down Wahton-ka's throat and Wahtonka made three fumbles in the last quarter. Tony Currin, Ken Combs, and Herman Winters made the recoveries. Wahtonka made a punt and left Heppner on Wahtonka's 2-yard line and Jeff Bailly was tackled in the end zone for Wahtonka's 2-point safety which ended the game. The next Heppner football game is at home. The public is invited to come for Heppner's Homecoming game and festivities. Heppner's opponent is Wasco and game time is 8 p.m. Friday, Oct. 24.

on a pass from Morter to LaRue. The ball was then handed to Margaret Doherty who ran it in for a touchdown. The ball was again passed to Hill for the extra points. The last touchdown came when Doherty sprinted into the end zone and the juniors ran away with the game, 30-0.
