

Heppner JV volleyball team beats Redsides

The Heppner J.V. volleyball team lost one game and won two to win the match with the Redsides, 11-15, 16-14, 15-4.

Because of the 16-14 score, to win a game the score in the final game had to be at least two points apart.

In one game the Fillies were behind 2-12, but then they had a comeback to 11-12 with the combined effort and serves of the whole team. That game ended with the score of 11-15, but they tried.

The C-team lost to the Redsides 9-15, and 6-15.

Gardeners to work at school in Lexington

Beginning the first week of November (next week) and continuing through the month, members of the Heppner Garden Club will be working to make decorative items to sell at the Dec. 6 Artifactory. The work sessions will be on Monday afternoons from 1:30 p.m. and on Thursday evenings from 7 p.m. Last Saturday dry materials from several members' homes were taken to the work place, the school headquarter's kitchen at Lexington.

Members and their families and friends will find that this year's work place is much more spacious and comfortable than last year's. It is urgent that as many as possible come both on Monday afternoons and on Thursday evenings to fashion salable items. Each person should bring along needed tools - wire, pliers, clay, and any other usable materials.

Toward the end of the month there will be a weekend of greens gathering for the annual Greens Workshop which will again be held in the 4-H Annex during the same hours as the AAUW Artifactory.

The November meeting of the Heppner Garden Club will be on Monday evening Nov. 10, at the home of Alberta Johannes on D. Cox Canyon road.

We thought they looked a little worn

The Ione band uniforms pictured in the Oct. 23 Gazette-Times are 25-years-old-not new as incorrectly stated by the G-T.

Our apologies to the Ione Band and the Ione Band Parents' Club who are in the process of raising funds to buy new band uniforms.

Cards start off good but lose momentum

by Michelle LaRue

The Ione volleyball team played Heppner at home on Tuesday, Oct. 21. The Cards were defeated 15-3 and 15-2. The Cards started the game off with some really good plays, but couldn't seem to keep the momentum going.

The Cardinals have two games remaining in the season. The first will be on Thursday, Oct. 30, at Wahtonka; the game will be played at 5 p.m. The last game will be Saturday, Nov. 1, against Sherman County; the game will be played at 1 p.m.

Social Security rep to visit

The Social Security representative will be at the Heppner Neighborhood Center, 178 Willow, on Friday, Nov. 14, from 10 a.m. till noon.

Social Security, Supplemental Security Income, and Medicare problems may be brought to the Social Security representative the second Friday of each month, between 10 a.m. and noon, to the Heppner Neighborhood Center.

Fillies' win at Ione

by Sherry cowett

On Oct. 21 the Heppner Fillies traveled to Ione to play the Ione Cardinals for a varsity game. The Fillies won with the scores of 15-3 and 15-2.

Nancy Miller was the high-point server with nine points in the first match. Other high point servers were Kellie Hammond with eight and Sandra Ward with five. The rest of the points were scattered throughout the team.

Coach Terjeson said that the Fillies "served well and we had some good spikes." Margaret Kincaid led in spikes and blocking spikes.

The Ione game put the Fillies 5-3 in district.

HHS seniors-freshmen take victory in powder puff game Thurs.

by Andy Gorman

Last Thursday night, Oct. 23, the Heppner Powder Puff game was under way. The "rough and tough and all that stuff" seniors and freshmen took on the "jumping for joy" juniors and sophomores.

The seniors and freshmen took a victory over the juniors and sophomores with the final score, 14-8.

For the juniors and the sophomores, Mary Kincaid made a touchdown and up the sideline for the extra two points.

For the seniors and freshmen was Bonnie Nix who ran six yards for a touchdown and Kelly Hammond who made two extra points. Lynn Dee Devin ran 75 yards for a touchdown.
