

Devils meet defeat on Halloween night at hand of Cards

by Michelle LaRue

The Cardinals traveled to Condon on Friday, Oct. 31, Halloween night. The game started at 7:30 and, as the game came to an end, the scoreboard showed the Cards in the lead, 50-22.

The Cards kicked off to Condon but the Cardinal defense held them and forced the Blue Devils to punt. The Cards were signaled to go for a block, and, as the ball was hiked, Gregg Rietmann broke through the line and blocked the punt. Rietmann picked up the ball and ran 43 yards for a touchdown. Jeff Hams ran in for the extra points.

Ione again kicked the ball to the Blue Devils and again they were forced to punt. Ione moved the ball down to the 1-yard line and Hams pushed in on a quarterback sneak. The extra points were good with Hams passing to Treve Peterson. This made the score 16-0 with the Cards in the lead at the end of the first quarter.

The next touchdown came when Morris Weatherford of Condon fumbled the ball and Mark Rouska recovered the ball, which had already bounced into the end zone for a touchdown. The pass for the extra points was good.

Ione again moved the ball to the 1-yard line and Shawn LaRue ran it in for a touchdown. The extra points were no good. The Cards held the Blue Devils and score one more time before the buzzer for half. The touchdown came when Denny Starr passed to LaRue who ran into the end zone. This made the halftime score 28-8.

The third quarter turned into a defensive battle as neither team was able to penetrate the other's goal line.

Ione scored the first touchdown of the fourth quarter when Hams broke loose for an 80-yard run into the end zone. Howard Leavitt ran in for the extra points.

Condon moved the ball down to the 4-yard line where Frank Bauman made the touchdown. Weatherford ran it in for the extra points. This made the score 36-16.

Condon then recovered an onside kick, but turned the ball over to Ione when Tim Patton tipped a pass which Richard Ladd caught. Ione capitalized on this as LaRue ran six yards for a touchdown. The extra points were no good.

Condon scored their last touchdown on a 17-yard run by Weatherford, the run for the extra points failed. This made the score 42-22. The Blue Devils again tried an onside kick but it only went five yards, so the Cards took over from there.

The last touchdown of the game came when Leavitt sprinted 44 yards into the end zone. The extra points were good with a pass from Starr to Jim McCabe. The score at the end of the game was 50-22.

The Cardinals rushed for 373 yards. Leading rusher was Rietmann with 132. Hams had 94 and LaRue had 85 yards. The Cards passed 6 for 10 for 72 yards. Condon rushed for 175 yards and were 18 for 29 for 172 yards in passing.

Next action for the Cards will be their final league game at Echo, Friday, Nov. 7, at 7:30 p.m.

Ione 16-12-0-22-50
Condon 0-8-0-14-22

Bowling News

Koffee Kup Keglers
Oct. 30, 1980

1 - Three Holers, 2 - Gutter Dusters, 3 - The Pytts, 4 - Three L'S, 5 - Weary Wives, 6 - Hi Ho's, 7 - Newcomers, 8 - The Dreigs.

High individual game - Iris Campbell, 165
High individual series - Iris Campbell, 475.
High team game - Weary Wives, 579
High team series - Three L'S, 1,589.

Weather cooperates in x-country

Sunday, Nov. 2, under ideal weather and playing conditions, ten golfers participated in the last golfing event of the year at Willow Creek Country Club.

With a special layout—par 68 for the cross country tournament, John Edmundson won low gross with 69; Jim Wishart took low net with 51; Dave Harrison had least putts; John Boyer took long drive - No. 4, K.P. No. 1, and K.P. 2nd shot - No. 7.

Sign up now for town team basketball

Anyone interested in signing up for town team basketball league may contact Ted Toll at Heppner Auto Parts, 676-9123.

League play starts in December.

Heppner Fillies warm up to beat Pilot Rock Rockets

by Sherry Cowett

The Heppner-Pilot Rock varsity volleyball match on Oct. 28 was tough and, according to Coach Terjeson, it took the Fillies a long time to warm up. But they warmed up enough to beat the Rockets, 9-15, 15-13, and 15-4.

High point scorers for this non-league game were Mary Kincaid with 11 total, Lynn Dee Devin with eight total and Nancy Miller with six. Other outstanding players were Sandra Ward and Deanne Connor for spiking.

The J.V. team also beat the Pilot Rock Rockets with the scores of 13-15, 15-3 and 15-0. All three games were very competitive.

The high point server was Michelle Aaron with 21 total points.

Pilot Rock has no C-team, so no C-team game was played.

Ione VB team travels for last away game

by Michelle LaRue

The Ione volleyball team traveled to the last away game of the season on Thursday, Oct. 30, at Wahtonka. The Cards were defeated but played pretty good. The scores were 3-15 and 1-15.

The last home game was played Saturday, November 1, against Sherman County. Ione had just enough players to play in the game, as only six girls were there. The Cards couldn't seem to get going as they were defeated, 0-15 and 3-15.

This was senior Janet Hams last game. The other senior, Teena Lindstrom, was injured earlier and was unable to play the last few games of the season.

Ione Junior High team ends season with a win

by Michelle LaRue

The Ione Jr. High Football team ended the season with a win at Condon on Thursday, Oct. 30.

The first touchdown came when Mark Meyers ran the ball in from the 45-yard line. The extra points were no good.

Condon made the next touchdown and went ahead as the extra points were good. Ione scored again as Meyers ran in from the 15-yard line. Jeff Ball ran for the extra points, making the halftime score 14-8, with Ione out in front.

Ione scored the first touchdown after the half as Meyers ran in from 45 yards out. Jeff Ball threw a pass to Kevin Ball for the extra points, making the score 22-8 at the end of the game.

Mike Rietmann had one interception and Jeff Ball had three for Ione.

The Cardinals ended the season with three wins and three losses.

Two high scorers in HHS VB game

by Sherry Cowett

The October 30, Heppner High School varsity volleyball match against Sherman ended with scores of 15-7, and 15-10 in Heppner's favor.

High point servers for the game were Deann Connor with 11 points (ten in a row) and Kellie Hammond with eight.

Other outstanding players were Mary Kincaid for spiking and Lynn Dee Devin for setting.

During the second game everyone got to play and Coach Terjeson said they had good team work.

The Fillies now stand for 3rd in district, unless Wahtonka beats Wasco. Then Heppner will be tied with Wahtonka for 2nd.

The J.V. team also won their Sherman match with scores of 15-10, 9-15 and 15-12.

High point servers were Michelle Aaron with 13 points (eleven points in a row) and Lisa Nix with nine.

The C-team match was extremely long and ended with scores of 9-15, 16-14 and 12-15.

These were the last J.V. and C-team games of the season.

Mustangs trounce Lyle Trojans

Trojans best sportsmen this year

by Andy Gorman

The Heppner Mustangs took on the Lyle, Washington Trojans last Friday night, and before it was all over the Mustangs had trounced the opposing team 47 to 25, on Heppner's home field.

The Trojans proved to be one of the best sportsmen-like teams the Mustangs have faced this year.

Heppner won the toss and elected to receive the opening kickoff of the fog-shrouded-Halloween-night game. On the first play-off scrimmage Heppner quarterback John Bier went to the air and gained yardage.

Attempting to put the ball aloft again, Bier got into trouble from a rushing Trojan defense and had to run out of the pocket. The move payed off, however, as Bier scooted 48 yards down the sideline for the first score of the game, putting Heppner up, 6-0. Joe Mollahan booted the extra point to widen the margin to 7-0.

After the kickoff Lyle attempted to move the ball on the ground, but Heppner's tenacious defense was too much for the Trojans who were forced to punt on fourth down.

With Heppner's offense back in control, the Mustangs mixed passing and running to move the ball up field.

On second and five Bier dropped back to pass and was sacked by the opposing defense. He coughed up the ball and Lyle recovered.

But once again the Trojans could not penetrate the Mustang defenders, and had to punt the ball away.

Attempting to field the punt, Heppner's Tony Currin had the ball hit him in the face, and he was forced to fall on the football.

Heppner bounced back, however, and on a second-down play Bier handed off to Earl Hammond, who raced 34 yards for Heppner's second TD of the night. Joe Mollahan missed the extra point, making the score 13-0 in favor of the home team.

The Trojans got the ball once again on the kickoff, but showed once again its offense was no match for the Heppner defenders, stalling and punting the ball.

On the next series of plays Heppner worked the ball downfield, and Murray scored on a handoff from Bier, making the score Heppner 20, Lyle, zip.

Lyle got the ball on the ensuing kickoff, but after a sustained drive mixing attempted passes (none complete) and running, they came up empty handed on the Heppner eight-yard line. Failing to punch it over, the Trojans gave up the ball.

Heppner quarterback Bier came back throwing on the next play, but out of the fog came a Lyle defender, who picked off the pass and ran it in for Washington's first score of the contest. Lyle made the extra point and the score stood Heppner, 20, Trojans, 7.

The Mustangs popped right back, however, when, on third down after the kickoff, Bier handed the pigskin to Hammond who ran it in for the score. Mollahan connected on the extra point attempt and Heppner upped its lead, 27-7.

After the kickoff Heppner's defense came up with a few tricks and treats of its own when defensive back Murray got in the way of a Trojan pass, picking it off for a 37-yard scamper through three Lyle defenders for six points.

Mollahan proved his consistency by hitting on the extra point again, and the half ended with Heppner in control of the game, 34-7.

Fans got a treat at the half time when the Heppner High stage band, dressed as ghouls and goblins, entertained with a rendition of "Spooky." The high school dance team also entertained with an excellent routine.

Heppner kicked off to Lyle at the start of the second half, however, the Trojans could not move the ball and were forced to punt.

The Mustang's offense, which could not seem to be stopped, popped back with another score when the, by now familiar, play of Bier handing to Hammond worked again for another six points, this one off a 20-yard run. The extra point attempt was no good and Heppner led, 40-7.

On the next series of plays Lyle got on the board again when the Mustang defense blitzed, and the Trojans slipped a pass in for six points. They missed the extra point and the score was 40-13.

Heppner got the ball back on the kick off, but Doug Holland fumbled, and the Mustangs lost the ball. But the very next play Lyle attempted a pass, and who should be there but Heppner's Brian Thompson who picked off the loss.

One minute later the Mustangs worked the ball into scoring position, and Bier pushed his way through from the 10 for the score. Holland made the extra point and Heppner was up, 47-13.

Rounding out the scoring, Lyle scored on an interception from Heppner quarterback Jeff Orr. Another touchdown by the Trojans brought the final score to 47-25 in favor of the Mustangs.

When asked about the Heppner defense, Lyle's coach said, "With their offense, they don't need their defense."

Heppner's next game will be at Pilot Rock against the Pilot Rock Rockets on Nov. 7. The game time is 8 p.m.