Pomona Grange discusses wheat exports, election

by Delpha Jones

A most interesting and educational talk was the highlight of the Wheatland Pomona District No. 29 meeting, concerning the market of wheat exports from the US and the need for enlarging Bonneville Dam locks. Donald Thompson, president of the Oregon Wheat League was present to explain these two problems, which are uppermost in the minds of farmers and consumers at present.

One solution to the problems discussed was foreign market, especially with China, which, it is hoped will be in operation within the next four years.

The locks at Bonneville Dam are not large enough to accommodate the traffic of wheat barges on the Columbia River. The locks of the other dams on the Columbia and Snake are large enough to take care of the traffic but the barges are held up at Bonneville. Letters are being sent to congressmen, the Corps of Engineers and others to try and get this needed project underway. At the best it will take two to six years to realize anything from this.

The Pomona grange drafted a resolution to this effect. The resolution committee was Dorris Graves, Donald Thompson and Vernon Root.

The meeting was presided over by the Master, Rolland Johnson of Rufus Grange. The distinguished guests received and escorted to the master's station were Donald Thompson, and the Oregon State Grange deputy Ralph Fenton and wife.

There were good reports received from the members and officers of the grange with all reporting that granges are working in helping the granges and communities.

The CWA chairman reported that Clara Huston won a blue ribbon on a doily and that Marilyn Bergstrom won a red ribbon on a luncheon cloth at the recent needlework judging.

The legislative committee chairman, Dorris Graves, encouraged everyone to vote and to pay careful attention to the Congress, as they pay a goodly part in the rummaging of the government, as well as the president and vice-president. She, like most of those present, says she is tired of the mud slinging we see and hear on the radio and T.V. She also brought out that the news media have a great deal to do with the election, and to listen to them with an open mind. Vernon Root, also of the Legislative Committee, talked on the measures and told how most of the grangers felt on particular measures and how the state grange would suggest that grangers vote.

Mr. Weimer had a few words for the grange, saying that the US must stay united as a government, or some other form of government will step in and take over.

Greenfield Grange had a degree day Nov. 2 and the Master, Art White, invited all to attend.

Greenfield Grange will host the Pomona meeting Jan. 31 and at the same time the Pomona Degree will be given.

Ralph Fenton, state deputy told the group that he and his wife are moving back to their home in Portland because of business reasons, and that he will not be a deputy for this area any longer. He will continue to work with the grange in any capacity that he can. He reminded us that the National master is a granger, owning property in the state of Nebraska and he feels that he will have the farmers problems as his concerns and will do all that he can to help with this.

Roll call of grangers was Powell Butte, 1. Willows, 3. Lexington, 2. Rufus, 13. Mikkalo, 8. Greenfield, 4. and Rhea Creek, 1.

A lovely dinner was served at noon by the ladies of the Mikkalo Grange.

The meeting adjourned with the group practicing for the 5th degree.
