Tables still available at AAUW Artifactory

Tables are still available for the annual AAUW Artifactory planned for Saturday, Dec. 6. It will again be held in conjunction with the Heppner Garden Club Greens workshop at the Fairgrounds in Heppner. All kinds of handicrafts, art, and Christmas baked goods are appropriate sale items. Individuals and groups are encouraged to take advantage of this opportunity to make some Christmas money for themselves as well as to bring their skills and talents to the public.

Table space at $5 for the day can be reserved by calling Joy Krein, 676-9956, Inez Erwin, 676-5806, or Marie Boor, (evenings) 422-7568.

Sports medicine workshop slated

St. Anthony Hospital at Pendleton is offering a 'Sports Medicine Workshop,' Saturday, Nov. 22, from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in the auditorium. The program is directed toward all persons involved in school or volunteer sports and recreation activities. It is designed to assist individuals in prevention, recognition and treatment of sports injuries.

Featured at the program will be Charles Weeks, M.D., orthopedic surgeon; Rick Troxel, assistant athletic trainer, University of Oregon; and Larry Groves, acting program director, athletic department, University of Oregon.

Pre-registration is requested. Call St. Anthony Hospital, 276-5121, extension 208, Eva Sullivan.

Food will be admission to 'Soup Sunday'

The Hope Lutheran Church is involved in a hunger drive, locally and world-wide.

As part of the drive, Hope Lutheran is having a special 'Soup Sunday' on Nov. 23, right after church services.

Featured at 'Soup Sunday' will be a simulation game to show the distribution of food in the world. Also featured will be a filmstrip.

Admission is a nonperishable food item, which will be distributed locally to needy families. There will also be a special offering taken for world needs.

Souper Seamers plan activities

by Noella Rill and Trina Palmer

The Souper Seamers held their first sewing 4-H meeting Nov. 1 to organize the 1980-81 year.

The club has seven members this year: Kim Wright, president; Merry DeSpain, vice-president; Kim George, secretary; and Trina Palmer and Noella Rill, news reporters.

Activity chairmen are Nance Wright and Stacy Toll. Nance Wright, Stacy Toll, and Trina Palmer are new members.

On Nov. 8, the Souper Seamers went to the Button Hole in Hermiston for most of the day, and got material and patterns for pants.

Each member is making a pair of pants to start out the new year.

The next meeting will be Saturday, Nov. 15, at Judy Wright's house. Nance will serve cookies and Merry will serve punch.

4-H Gem and Geology Club elects officers

At their meeting on Oct. 6, the 4-H Gem and Geology Club elected officers.

Elected for president was Gibb Evans; for vice-president, Suzan Evans; for treasurer, Swayne Evans; for secretary, Steve Hulen; for news reporter, Marla Mills; and for sergeant-at-arms, Coleen Dike.

On Oct. 25, the club went to Umatilla on a field trip. Club members looked for agates and jasper and any other stones that could be used in their collections.

The field trip concluded with a wiener roast and picnic.
