

Garden glamour vine discussed at Ione Garden Club meeting

Clematis, the glamour vine of the garden, was the subject of discussion at the Nov. 12 meeting of the Ione Garden Club with Ruth McCabe as leader. Clematis is of the ranunculi family and blooms from spring to fall. It flourishes in alkaline soil, needs good drainage and does best in half sun. There are some 150 species growing in the U.S.

Potpourri was the second topic, led by Carol McKaig. She gave suggestions for various herbs and spices that can be used. Flower petals and fragrant leaves of roses, lemon verbena, mints, rosemary, thyme, basil, and marjoram as well as crushed seeds of anise, caraway, cardamom, coriander, cloves, allspice, ginger, and nutmeg may be used.

In drying petals McKaig recommended that they be placed in a single layer with the leaves not touching and then stored in a cool dark place. She also pointed out that many flowers such as jasmine, mignonette, violets and hyacinths do not hold their scent in drying.

During the business meeting it was announced that 'Oasis' and 'Snip All' scissors will be available to members. Plans were made to make sachets for patients at the nursing home at Pioneer Memorial Hospital. Leila Palmer acted as hostess with Lorraine Ladd assisting.

Women Aglow to give thanks at turkey dinner

The Heppner Women's Aglow Fellowship will give thanks Tuesday, Nov. 25, at a 6:30 p.m. turkey dinner at the Episcopal Parish Hall in Heppner.

A fellowship meeting will follow at 7:15. Featured speaker will be Dee Archer. Cost for the dinner is $2.50.

38 students make Ione honor roll

Thirty-eight students at Ione Junior-Senior High school achieved honor roll status for the first nine-week session.

Those qualifying for the 'A' honor must earn a grade-point average of 3.5 or better; those qualifying for the 'B' honor roll must maintain a 3.0 to 3.4 grade-point average.

Two students, senior Shawn LaRue and sophomore Denny Starr, attained a perfect 4.00 (straight-A) average.
