Holly Rebekah Lodge met on Thursday for their regular meeting with Virginia Peck in the chair. Election of officers was the main business of the evening with the following elected: noble grand, Joyce Buchanan, vice-grand, Gladys Van Winkle, secretary, Delpha Jones, and treasurer, Dorothy Burcham. Past Noble Grand Virginia Peck was elected as the three-year trustee.

The noble grand announced that the group is having sewing and work days to get things prepared for the Artifactory in Heppner.

The drill captain said that San Souci Lodge had invited Holly Lodge to put on the initiatory work at their lodge in December and the Holly girls are getting ready to practice this coming week. The unwritten work was practiced.

Lovely refreshments were served following the meeting.

Three Links Club met at the home of Catie Padberg on Thursday for their regular meeting with chairman Dorothy Burcham. Plans were further discussed for the Artifactory, and it was decided the group would cook and serve the Farm City Banquet in Heppner. A committee to plan the dinner was appointed. The ladies signed cards to be sent to shut-in members. Those attending were: Leila Palmer, Ruth Robinson, Virginia Peck, Josie Peck, Delpha Jones, Venice Hendrickson, Dorothy Burcham and the hostess, Catie Padberg. The door prize was won by Josie Peck. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Gladys VanWinkle, Leora Kane and son, Patrick, have recently visited with Mrs. VanWinkle's daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Braadd in Ontario.

Earl Miller has rented the Florence McMillan house and has moved there. Mrs. McMillan is now a resident of the Good Samaritan Center nursing home in Hermiston. John Spence, a brother of Mrs. McMillan, is also a resident of the Good Samaritan retirement home.

Lexington Grange met on Monday evening for the regular meeting with the master, Barbara Cutsforth, in the chair. Interesting committee reports were heard. Agriculture committee chairman, Ken Smouse, talked on the use of chemicals to hold down growth and improve tillage conditions and the coming Wheat League meeting in Dec. The legislative chairman, O. W. Cutsforth, talked about the Ditch Creek and Smith Falls preservation, and the committee that has been appointed to present a plan to the users of Willow Creek waters concerning this.

An election of officers was then held with the following results: master, Delpha Jones; overseer, Lyle Peck; lecturer, Barbara Cutsforth; steward, Earl Papineau; assistant steward, Kenneth Smouse; chaplain, Marie Steagall; treasurer, Cecil Jones; secretary, Jean Nelson; gatekeeper, Glover Peck; Ceres, Rena Marquardt; Pomona, Virginia Peck; Flora, Venice Hendrickson; lady assistant, Frances Smouse; musician, Doug Marquardt; executive committee, Lyle Peck, Norman Nelson, and O.W. Cutsforth.

There was some discussion on the Pomona resolution concerning the enlargement of the Bonneville Dam Locks and the group went in favor of the resolution. Plans were made for a Christmas party to be held at the nursing home in Heppner, with gifts provided for the residents. A short Christmas party will be held at grange at the next meeting with the tree to be provided by
