

EODC Women's International has fall meeting

The fall meeting of Eastern Oregon District Council of Epsilon Sigma Alpha Women's International was hosted recently by the Pendleton Chapter, Epsilon Alpha.

Fifty-two members, representing all eight chapters of the district, met for a luncheon meeting at the Kopper Kitchen restaurant.

The program, presented by the Gamma Upsilon chapter of Condon, was a movie featuring Mary Tyler Moore, "Women of Yesterday." The movie dealt with conditions under which women in earlier times worked and obtained voting rights.

Alan Zimmerman, EOD

president from Fossil, lead the meeting.

Each chapter reported on their activities; many have excellent philanthropic programs.

A special report was given on the fall leadership meeting held in The Dalles in September. The next state board meeting will be held in January.

An invitation was received to the spring open house at Camp Meadowood Speech Camp. This camp is the special philanthropic project of EOD.

Enterprises Beta Xi Chapter was presented with the "Daredevil" award for their 1979-1980 rushing program.

The 1980-1981 district budget was presented and approved. It was voted to send $45 to the disaster fund, in addition to the $53 made by raffling of an afghan made by Ernestine Kilgore, Beta Xi Chapter, Enterprise.

There was discussion on chartering a bus to go to state convention in Medford in April of 1981. No decision was reached.

Rap sessions for all officers were held and found very informative.

Epsilon Alpha of Pendleton plans to make a courtesy bid for the Oregon state convention in April, 1982. The Eastern Oregon district chapters will help host this meeting.

Heppner will host the Spring EOD meetings.

Tips to keep you relaxed

If you want to avoid last-minute hassles on Christmas Eve, these tips may help you celebrate in a more relaxed manner.

• Be sure you have plenty of wrapping paper, gift tags, tape, ribbons, well before the middle of December.

• Wrap gifts as you select them and get them home and put them away in a "child-proof" place.

Wedding Announcement

Rietmann-Anderson

Tami Kay Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Anderson, Arlington, became the bride of Mark Everett Rietmann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rietmann, Ione, on Saturday, Oct. 25, 1980, at a 2 p.m. ceremony.

The Reverend Dan Nichols of the United Methodist Church at Arlington officiated.

White glads and pink mums graced the altar and candelabra.

Pink azalea plants and white pew bows with pink silk poppies completed the wedding scene.

Tami, given in marriage by her father, Don Anderson, wore an organza gown with a stand-up collar and a bodice of Chantilly lace, trimmed with a ruffle of cotton Venice lace. The skirt, which extended into three flounced tiers, trimmed with Venice lace, fell in a chapel-length train. Her hat, which was of special design and matched the gown, was trimmed with silk orchids and featured a brim which turned up on one side, a pencil-edge veil and back pouf.

For "something old," Tami wore her great-grandmother

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Rietmann

Farrens' tiny gold dollar in her shoe. For "something blue," she wore the blue garter her mother wore on her wedding day.

Completing her ensemble, Tami carried a cascade bouquet of orchids, baby pink roses, and ivy.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Jean Carlton, Arlington, a friend of the bride. Bridesmaids were Miss Connie Steward, and Miss Ann Coffelt, both of Arlington, and Mrs. Ruth Ansel, Beaverton. Torrie Philippi, Boardman, was flower girl. Ring bearer was Bradley Findley, Hood River, a cousin of the groom. Candle lighters were Connie Steward and Gregg Rietmann.

Attendants wore long dusty-pink crepe gowns of Vogue design, featuring flared capelets. They carried small cascade bouquets of three orchids and ivy. The flower girl wore a floor-length cotton Burgundy print dress, trimmed with white lace. She carried a basket of daisies and roses.

Phil Carlson, Heppner, was best man. Groomsmen were Greg and Brian Rietmann, brothers of the groom, and Brad Anderson, brother of the bride.

Serving as ushers were John Rietmann, Lake Oswego; Jerry Rietmann, Ione; Joe Rietmann, Condon, cousins of the groom, and David Anderson, Arlington.

Soloist was Anna Lee James and organist was Darrell James of Turner, Ore.

Honored guests at the ceremony were mothers of the bride and groom, Pat Anderson and Marilyn Rietmann; grandmothers, Mildred Wright, Heppner, Vera Rietmann, Ione, and Margaret Hurst, Arlington; out-of-town guests, Mrs. J.A. Saurial of Tacoma, Wash., the groom's godmother; and great aunts of the bride, Pearl Ulacher, Tacoma, Wash., Nellie Kruger, Sherwood, Mt. and Mrs. Harry Owen, Federal Way, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Farrens, Monmouth.

A wedding reception was held at the church following the ceremony. Burgundy velvet ribbon and pink bells adorned the reception area. Serving cake were the groom's aunts, Ruby Ann Rohde, Kennewick, and Betty Rietmann, Ione, the bride's aunt Janet Litchfield, Bend, and cousin, Helen Elsmore, The Dalles.

Pouring were the bride's great aunt, Blance Donald, The Dalles, the groom's aunt, Shirley Anderson, Arlington, and cousins, Barbara Donald and Wende Dwyer, The Dalles.

Passing out wheat parcels to throw at the newlyweds were the bride's cousins, Julie and Denise. Attending the guest book was Donna Rietmann, Condon.

After a buffet at the bride's parents' home near Blalock, which was attended by many relatives and friends, the couple left on a wedding trip to Bend and the coast. As a going away outfit, the bride wore a Burgundy crepe dress with a lace collar.

The couple will reside and work at the Don Anderson ranch (home of grandmother Mildred Wright) near Ruggs, where they have located a new double-wide mobile home.

Tami is a 1979 graduate of Arlington High School, and has attended Blue Mountain Community College at Pendleton. She was employed by Pendleton Banking Company. Mark is a graduate of Ione High School and a 1976 graduate of Blue Mountain Community College.

We're bringing history to you. NOW.

LESS THAN 100

You can be a part of our new, but historic, NOW ACCOUNT.

We call it PayChecking. You'll call it a great idea. Great - because it makes you money in a better way.

For nearly seven decades we've been on our toes to bring you better service at lower charges. We've done it again! Our PayChecking account gives you a nice daily return on money you might otherwise just leave lying around a checking account.

Here's how it works.

When you open a PayChecking account, your checking money becomes earning money along with being spending money. When you want to write a check, great. Your PayChecking account acts just like a normal checking account. It's the same system, it's the same checks. But when you're not spending your checking money - it hums along earning you 5 1/4% interest. All the time. Day after Day.

You can own a solid sterling Mt. St. Helens medallion.

Minted especially for Western Heritage Savings by the world famous Franklin Mint, this solid sterling silver commemorative piece depicts Mt. St. Helens on the day before it's eruption on one side, and the famous eruption on May 18, 1980, on the other.

As a limited edition creation, numbered and registered, the Mt. St. Helens Medallion will be a family heritage item for generations. Just as our new PayChecking account will be an economic treasure for your family, the Mt. St. Helens Medallion will be a collectors treasure for years to come.

Available with chain, or key chain, all you need to do is pre-register at your local Western Heritage Savings office. This will allow you, along with a small $4.95 Charter Membership fee, to get your check book cover, first order of checks, and medallion. The minimum deposit is only $25.00. PayChecking accounts are activated December 31, 1980. There are only 1,000 medallions available. We urge you to make this moment in history your moment. Forever.

Here's how to get it.

Just stop in. You can open your account with as little as you'd like and start getting your interest return right away. Our PayChecking counselors are eager to help with any questions and will make you feel right at home.

One or two different ways to go.

Plan 1. IMMEDIATE CHECK RECEIPT. This plan allows you to have a copy of each check with you at all times. So, when you write your check, your receipt is right there. No fuss or problem and an immediate reference source for your family financial activities.

Plan 2. CHECK RETURN. In this system, we'll mail you cancelled checks along with your statement at the end of each month. The cost of this service is slightly higher due to handling and postage.
