'Clownball' basketball with a show

"Clownball - a basketball game with a show" is what local fans will see when the "craziest bunch of athletes in the history of sports" appear in the Heppner High School gymnasium on the night of Tuesday, Dec. 2, at 7:30 p.m.

Masters of the game, the Harlem Clowns have combined "razzle-dazzle" ball handling, precision pass patterns, trick shooting, fancy dribbling and comedy to make theirs one of the most entertaining shows in the business.

Owner Al Pullins coined the name "Clownball" to describe his team's style of play. Through the years, the antics and shenanigans of his "fun-loving" boys have brought them world-wide as well as national fame.

The clowns can play straight basketball, and they are experts at the dunk shot, the hook, one-handed push shot and the long shot. They mix straight shots with comedy routines and often come up with spontaneous humor.

The clowns are able to return to a city year after year. They offer much the same show, but "it is so spiced with new talent, tremendous ball handling, shooting and comedy, that capacity crowds continue to come back."

If you've seen them before, you know that the clowns always try to stage a better-than-ever show and if this is your first time, you're really in for a treat.

Some fans like straight basketball, others prefer comedy. The clowns dish up generous helpings of both.
