Tom & Jerry
from Patti Allstott, proofreading, layout

The following recipe appeared in "The Oregonian" during the Christmas holiday season 30 years ago. My mother clipped it out and gave it a try. My parents really enjoyed it, as did the rest of the family and their friends. This Tom and Jerry recipe soon became a Christmas tradition for our family and either Mom or Dad mixes up a batch each year.

It's very easy to make and nice to have when friends drop by.

6 eggs, separated

Beat whites until frothy

Add 1/2 teaspoon cream of tartar and beat until stiff

Beat yolks until creamy and add 1/2 teaspoon soda

Gradually add 1 tablespoon whiskey for each egg yolk and mix well

Fold yolk mixture into whites and gradually beat in enough powdered sugar to make a thick mix (about three pounds).

Spoon about 1 to 2 tablespoons of batter into a mug and add 1 1/2 oz. (1 shot glass) whiskey. Then fill with boiling water or hot milk (very rich) and stir.

Top with a dash of cinnamon or nutmeg.

Ham-lins

which has been so helpful to them these last several years. She says life would have been much more difficult during the time of her broken legs and since then if it were not for the weekly assistance they receive through this wonderful agency. She hopes this agency is never discontinued.

One of Hazel and Frank's greatest joys is their summer cabin near Parker's Mill. It was given to them by Frank's mother in 1951. They are out there much of each summer and love having their family and old friends visit them there.

As our afternoon of visiting ended, both the Ham-lins stressed "Heppner has been so good to us." Their friends and neighbors chorus that "The Ham-lins have been so good to Heppner."
