Weddings

Lindstrom - Schimling

Mr. and Mrs. Lindstrom

Debra Elizabeth Schimling became the bride of Stephen Roy Lindstrom on the afternoon of November 29 in the MGM Grand Hotel Chapel in Reno, Nevada. Officiating at the double-ring ceremony in the presence of many family members was the Reverend Harry R. McCall.

Wendy Lou Engle of Tacoma, Washington, was maid of honor. She was attired in an ivory skirt with mauve blouse and carried three long-stemmed red roses. Richard L. Hynd of Tulsa, Oklahoma was best man. Mark Schimling, the bride's brother of Tacoma, and Stan Weper of Clear Lake, California, the groom's brother-in-law, were groomsmen.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore her mother's wedding dress of 35 years ago, made of white satin and tulle and trimmed with appliques of lace on the sheer sleeves, neckline and skirt. Her long veil fell from a crown of lace and the same lace formed three tiers of trim the full length of the veil. She carried an ivory fan with a nosegay of miniature mums, roses and baby's breath.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Hal Schimling of Tacoma. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom of Ione. Both mothers wore long blue gowns with white carnation corsages.

After a honeymoon at Lake Tahoe, the young couple were feted at a reception hosted by the groom's parents at the Ione Legion Hall, which was beautifully decorated in red, white and Christmas greens.

Christina Lindstrom of Tacoma, the groom's sister, greeted guests and tended the guest book. Nancy Haugen, Beaverton, was in charge of the gift table.

Others serving and assisting about the rooms were Mrs. June Crutcher of Lake Oswego, and Mrs. Lorene Griffith, the groom's aunts, Karen Haugen, Pullman, Wash., Mrs. Hyland Lundell, Boise, Idaho, Mrs. Charles O'Connor, Mrs. Duane Higel, Teena Lindstrom, Mrs. Henry Krebs, and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, all of Ione and Irene Swanson of Heppner.

The buffet table was arranged by the Legion Auxiliary. Special background music was provided by Mrs. Bill Rietmann, Mrs. David Cheney, Mrs. Fred Martin, and Mrs. Paul Tews.

The young couple were also feted at a reception at the home of the bride's parents in Tacoma.

The bride formerly was employed as an appointment secretary and receptionist for U.S. Representative Norm Dicks in his Washington D.C., office. She is now a legal secretary for the law firm of Gallup and Duggan in Vancouver, Wash.

The bridegroom, a Navy veteran and graduate of Eastern Oregon State College is executive vice-president of Pacific Northwest Waterways Association in Vancouver, Wash. He was formerly manager of the Port of Umatilla.

The couple will reside in Vancouver.

Irrigon Airman promoted to NCO

David A. Conboy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie L. Conboy of Irrigon, has been appointed a noncommissioned officer (NCO) in the U.S. Air Force. The sergeant completed training in management, leadership, human relations, and NCO responsibilities, before being awarded this status.

Sergeant Conboy is a telecommunications center specialist at Mountain Home Air Force Base, Idaho.

Odd Fellows donate $1,000 in furnishings

Bob Lowe (left) and Al Osmin of the Willow Lodge No. 66 of the International Order of Odd Fellows, show furniture donated by the lodge to furnish the new Pioneer Memorial Hospital emergency waiting room.

Chairs, drapes, tables and lamps donated by the lodge cost about $1,000.

The Odd Fellows have done a lot of this kind of thing in the community, and have had precious little recognition for it," said hospital Administrator Lucky Felt, in announcing the donation.
