

Ione Jr. High boys back from Echo with win

by Michelle LaRue

The Ione Jr. High boys traveled to Echo on Thursday, Dec. 18, for their second game of the season. The boys returned with a victory, 42-23.

The first quarter was pretty close as Ione had 10 to Echo's 8. All eight of Echo's points came from Fred Widman.

In the second quarter, the Cards took a 7-point lead as they outscored Echo, 7-2. The half-time score showed Ione in the lead, 17-10.

Ione came out after the half to take an even bigger margin, 30-15. Echo had one of their better quarters in the fourth but couldn't outscore the Cards. At the end of the game the scoreboard showed Ione ahead 42-23.

The scoring for the Cardinals was pretty close; Mark Meyers was high scorer with 8 points. Jeff Ball, Randy McCabe and Mark Schmidt all had 7 points each. Donnie Doherty had 6, with Ken Keene, Eric Pointer and Mike Rietmann all having two. Kevin Ball and Richard Keene each had one. Playing but not scoring were Ashley Conklin and Doug Raaf. High scorer for Echo was Fred Widman with 12 points.

The Cardinals had only 5 fouls called on them in the game, which allowed Echo to shoot only 2 free throws during the game. Ione shot 7 for 19 from the free throw line, giving them 37 percent.

Randy McCabe did an exceptional job rebounding for the Cards.

Coach Deeter was pleased with the team play his team showed in the game.

Cardinal girls meet Vikings second time

by Michelle LaRue

The Cardinal girls met the Umatilla Vikings for the second time this year on Friday, Dec. 19. The Cards were defeated, 31-48.

Ione had a very weak first half, scoring only 6 points in the first quarter and none in the second. The Vikings took advantage of this by scoring 28 points in the first half.

The Cardinals came out at half time looking better as they scored 10 points in the third quarter and held the Vikings to 12. At the end of the quarter the scoreboard showed the Vikings ahead, 16-40.

The Cards tried to make a comeback in the last quarter, outscoring Umatilla, 15-8. But this wasn't enough for the Cards as they were defeated, 31-48.

The Cards shot 1 for 6 for 17 percent from the free throw line. The Vikings shot 8 for 14 for 57 percent.

"We had a really good second half," commented Coach McDougal.

Cards defeated by Heppner 55-57

by Andrew Gorman

Saturday, Dec. 20, the Heppner Mustangs defeated the Ione Cardinals in a very tight ball game, 57 to 55.

It was a touch-and-go situation—all through the game the scores were very close, but somehow the Mustangs pulled through. During the first quarter, the Mustangs scored a total of 13 points and right up behind them was Ione with 12.

Talk about the ball being busy—in the second quarter it was thrown or passed all over the place. Ione made four field goals and six free throw shots. Heppner, still in the lead, had nine buckets and one foul shot, making the score at the half, Mustangs, 32, to Cardinals, 26.

In the third quarter, every one cooled down—except the fans. Heppner had a total of 40 points by the end of the third quarter, while Ione, not at all out of the game, had 36 points.

The fourth quarter saw real action when Ione made a comeback with seven field goals and five foul shots.

Heppner barely pulled through with six buckets and five foul shots, taking the edge with 57 points to Ione's 55. This indeed was a good game.

EOSC has class from page 8

Woven into the course will be interviews with Dr. Lyle Schwarz, assistant professor of drama; Dr. Lee Insko, men's basketball coach; Linda Willis, women's basketball coach; James Robertson, EOSC band director and Grande Ronde Symphony conductor; and Dr. John Cobb, EOSC choir director. Each will meet with the class before the performance he or she directs to discuss expectations and then again after the performance to discuss how those expectations fared with an audience. The class will get a back-stage view of what's involved in each event.

Class members will attend a play, a men's basketball game, a women's basketball game, a musical and a choral concert as well as a rehearsal of practice for each event.

Venn said he expected the course to appeal to a variety of people from on and off campus. "There's something beyond us all in what ever we approach," he said smiling. "This is going to be an interesting way for us to see a little more."

Interested persons may register for the course the week of Jan. 5 in the Records Office, EOSC Administration Building. The office will be open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday, Thursday and Friday and from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday.
