Inconsistency plagues Heppner Jr. varsity

Inconsistency continued to plague the Heppner junior varsity boys basketball team last weekend.

Heppner captured its fourth straight win at home Friday night by defeating a tough Weston-McEwen, 41-39, but lost its fourth in a row on the road Saturday, a 50-48 decision to Umatilla.

Heppner, 4-4 on the season, played at Condon Tuesday. It was just Umatilla's second win in eight games this season.

Heppner's Mike Currin sank two free throws with 20 seconds left in the game against Weston-McEwen to give the Mustangs a 40-38 lead. Currin's fifth foul gave the Tiger-Scots two free throws with 10 seconds left, but Weston could convert just one of the two and Heppner grabbed the rebound. The Mustangs' Greg Connor sank a free throw with no time remaining to make it a two-point winning margin.

Both teams committed an excessive number of fouls, but Heppner won it at the free throw line by hitting 17 of 30 shots. The Mustangs had 20 fouls and Weston-McEwen, 24.

Heppner was led by Connor with 14 points and 19 rebounds. He also led Coach Brent Eggers' rating system with a +14 rating.

Currin scored 9 points, Jeff

Orr, 8; Harry Groshens, 4; Jay Hayes, 3; Matt Clark, 2, and Marty Britt, 1.

Against Umatilla, the Vikings got an 8-2 lead the first two minutes and led, 30-22, at the half. Heppner came back to take a two-point lead in the fourth quarter, but it was short-lived as Umatilla prevailed.

Connor and Orr scored 12 points, Groshens, 10, Currin 8, Andy Samples, 4, and Clark, 2. Connor and Groshens finished with a +14 rating. Orr grabbed nine rebounds, and Currin and Connor snared eight apiece.

Once again the Mustangs got in foul trouble and hit just 6 of 17 shots from the charity stripe themselves.

"It's a shame the great effort we had Friday night against Weston had to be overshadowed by a horrible performance against Umatilla the next night," said Eggers. "It's puzzling to me how we can play so well at home and so poorly on the road. The Umatilla game was our worst performance of the season. We lost because we weren't ready to play at the start of the game. It's hard to get mentally into the game he last three quarters if you aren't ready at the start."

"Greg Connor played well both nights and carried us against Weston-McEwen. He did the best job of screening out on the boards that I've seen all year. Matt Clark came off the bench to give us a lift Friday night. Saturday was just a case of some poor

Allstott deflates Schwab 71-42

and Gordon Myers, 10, to lead Ione to victory.

Barber's team was led by John McCabe with 20 points, while Jay Coil tallied 11 for Devin's team.

Jerry Gentry bombed in 18 points, Curt Day had 13, and Paul Stringer, 11 for Eggers' team to offset a 21-point performance by Gary Watkins of Johnston's team.

Third game of season brings another defeat for Heppner Mustangs

by Andrew Gorman

On Friday, Jan. 16, the third season game of the year brought another defeat for the Heppner Mustangs. Mistakes were a big factor in the Mustang loss.

The first quarter went off like a missile for the Weston-McEwen Tiger-Scots, as their quick start gave them a four point lead within the first couple minutes. The Mustangs, however, soon got their first two points in and the first quarter ended with Heppner ahead, 10 to 7.

In second quarter action, the Tiger-Scots put in six field goals, followed by Heppner with four buckets and one foul shot for a tie at halftime, 19 to 19.

The third quarter was an exhausting one for the players - one minute they were on offence, and the next they were on defence. But even though the Tiger-Scots were pulling ahead, with nine buckets and four free throw shots for 22 points, the Mustangs weren't about to give up. Heppner scored seven goals and one foul shot for 15 points for the quarter and a total score of 34 to Weston-McEwen's 41.

Although the Mustangs won the fourth quarter by one point, 21 to 20, it wasn't a big enough comeback to defeat the Tiger-Scots, and the Mustangs lost once again, 61 to 55. Weston-McEwen, 61: David Franklin, 3 5-8 11; Barry

Warner, 2 0-2 4; Dan Meek, 1 0-2 2; Ross Simons, 1 0-0 2; Greg Rice, 2 0 1 4; David Hammill, 4 0-5 8; Kent Kilby, 9 6-9 24; Laine McMillan, 3 0-3 6; Jim Schroeder, Scott Erickson, Mike McLean, Scott McLean.
