Bishop Leipzig mourned

The Most Rev. Francis P. Leipzig, retired Bishop of Baker (1950-1971) and one of the best known state churchmen died in Portland at the age of 85 on Jan. 17, and was buried in Portland's Mount Calvary Cemetery there last Saturday.

Bishop Leipzig is mourned by Catholics and non-Catholics not only for his long and outstanding church work but for several unusual activities. Before he was appointed Bishop of Baker he gave outstanding service to many parishes in western Oregon, including St. Mary's of Corvallis where he founded the O.S.U. Newman Club. He served as president of the Corvallis Ministerial Association and began his long relationship with fire departments which led, after many years, to his becoming an honorary life member of the International Firemen's Association.

When he served the parish of Eugene and taught at the parish high school and coached basketball there for a few seasons he was responsible in 1933 for beginning the state "B" basketball tournament for smaller high schools. After this he served on the board of control of the Oregon Athletic Association and on many state committees. In 1949 Gov. McKay appointed him to the Oregon State Labor Conciliation Board to represent the public.

The families of St. Patrick's of Heppner remember Bishop Leipzig most fondly and with much pride.

Drink the pot dry Jan. 30

You can drink the coffee pot dry and not pay for it on Friday, Jan. 30 - if you're wearing a $1 Easter Seal - Coffee Day button and do your drinking at any of the participating restaurants in more than 50 Oregon cities.

Each participating restaurant hopes to sell enough of the buttons between now and Coffee Day to buy a wheelchair, according to local Coffee Day committee members. Chairs, which cost about $350, will be placed on loan statewide through the Easter Seals equipment loan service. Equipment from the service is available only to Oregon children and adults with physical disabilities who are unable to obtain such equipment elsewhere.

Local chairperson for the Heppner area is LaRae Kindle, Epsilon Sigma Alpha, 367 Linden Way, Heppner, 676-5223.

OES, Masonic dinner planned

Ruth Locust Chapter No. 32, Order of the Eastern Star, met Monday, Jan. 12, for a regularly stated meeting.

Worthy Matron Louise Wood and Worthy Patron John Wood presided over the business of the chapter.

Secretary Carmelita Halvorsen stated that all Eastern Star members in the Pioneer Memorial Nursing Home had been remembered at Christmas time. She also read a memorial for Karl B. Wipper, PGP of OES from Turner, Oregon. Those present felt it was nice to hear from members sending in letters and cards with their 1981 dues.

After the meeting a delicious dessert was served by Susie Cooper. The table was decorated with a friendship theme.

The next meeting will be Monday, Feb. 9, which will be preceded by a potluck dinner at 6:30 p.m. and entertainment to honor the Masons. All Eastern Star members, Masons and their families are invited.
