

Mustangs lose by 4 to Tiger-Scots

Bier Looks on for rebound

By ANDREW GORMAN

February 13, the Heppner Mustangs were outscored by the Weston-McEwen Tiger-Scots, 68 to 64.

Actually, the first quarter was an exhausting episode as both teams ran their sneakers off. Even though Athena had won the first quarter, having nine field goals and two free throw shots, for a total of 20 points, Heppner was close at hand with six buckets and two fouls shots for 14 points for the first quarter.

The second quarter was a thriller as the Mustangs took a turn at the boards making a tremendous comeback scoring six baskets and eight shots from the line. Heppner's comeback gave them the edge and the quarter.

In the third quarter the Tiger-Scots made their own comeback as they pulled ahead with five hoops and six from the line. Heppner was left behind with four field goals for a total third quarter score of Tiger-Scots, 42, to Heppner, 31.

Fourth quarter was a thriller for the Heppner Mustangs surge for a comeback. The Mustangs lost the game as Weston-McEwen took Heppner for a loop, 68 to 64.

Ione shellacs Barber's team in city

Ione knocked Don Barber's team from the unbeaten ranks with a 51-31 shellacking to highlight Heppner men's city league basketball action Sunday night.

Ione improved its record to 7-2 to climb within one game of league-leading Barber's team (8-1).

Frank Halvorsen and Gordon Myers scored 11 points apiece to lead a balanced Ione attack. Pat Campbell had 10 for the losers.

In other games, Brent Eggers' team stopped Forest Service, 47-39; Rick Johnston's team edged Dick Devin's team, 50-46; and Dave Allstott's team whipped Mike Smith's team, 52-36.

This week's schedule is as follows: Les Schwab (1-7) vs. Devin (4-5) at 5 p.m.; Johnston (6-3) vs. Forest Service (1-8) at 6 p.m.; Smith (1-8) vs. Barber (8-1) at 7 p.m.; and Ione (7-2) at Allstott (5-4) at 8 p.m. Eggers (7-2) has a bye.

Mark Lovgren, 12, for Devin's team.

Bruce Kestler had 19 points in Allstott's win, while Charlie Sumner and Larry Smith popped in 12 apiece for Smith's team.

This week's schedule is as follows: Les Schwab (1-7) vs. Devin (4-5) at 5 p.m.; Johnston (6-3) vs. Forest Service (1-8) at 6 p.m.; Smith (1-8) vs. Barber (8-1) at 7 p.m.; and Ione (7-2) at Allstott (5-4) at 8 p.m. Eggers (7-2) has a bye.

Right face, wrong name

Gregg Rietmann

The photograph of Gregg Rietmann in the Feb. 12 Gazette-Times story entitled "Gridders named to East team," was inadvertently labeled Mark Rietmann.

Rietmann, Ione, Ray Miller, Heppner, Lerry Wilson, Riverside, and John Garrett, Arlington, were named to the East team of the annual East-West Shrine Club football game.

Camp Fire Dads feted

Thursday, Feb. 20 will be a special night for dads of Camp Fire Girls and Boys.

Dad's night will begin at 6 p.m. with a potluck dinner at the St. Patrick's Catholic Church parish hall in Heppner. All Camp Fire Girls and Boys and their fathers are invited to attend. The children will provide entertainment for their honored guests.

Heppner JVs lose to Tiger-Scots in one of 'best games of season'

The Heppner High boys junior varsity basketball team played one of its best games of the season, but lost to the Weston-McEwen JVs, 53-43, Friday night in Athena.

The loss was the third in a row for the Mustangs, dropping their season record to 6-7. Weston-McEwen's only losses of the season have come at the hands of Heppner and AA school Mac-Hi.

Heppner fell behind, 12-4, early in the game, but battled back with eight straight points to tie it up. The Mustangs were down 27-18 at halftime and 39-26 after three quarters.

Down by 17 points with a minute and a half to go in the third quarter, Heppner went into a press and actually cut the Tiger-Scot lead to six points late in the fourth quarter. However, Heppner ran out of time, had to foul to get the ball back and the comeback fell short.

Once again, the difference was at the foul line. Heppner had one more field goal than its host, 21-20, but sank only one of five free throws compared to 13-for-22 for Weston-McEwen.

Jeff Orr led Heppner with 22 points, seven rebounds, seven steals, and four assists. He registered +20 on Coach Brent Eggers' rating system. Harry Groshens scored 8 points for the Mustangs, Greg Connor, 7, and Marty Britt, 6. Connor grabbed seven rebounds and Groshens dealt out six assists for Heppner.

"It was probably one of our two or three best games of the season," said Eggers. "I was really proud of the way the kids hung in there. With the exception of a couple brief lapses they had their hands on the game the entire way." Heppner ended its season Tuesday night at home against Condon.

Dorian Forrar jumps against Stanfield

By ANDREW GORMAN

Heppner came back on Saturday with a tremendous effort to take a victory over the Stanfield Tigers 73 to 50.

The first quarter was pretty revealing as the Heppner Mustangs pulled ahead with 18 points, leaving the Tigers behind with 10.

The second quarter proved to be a little different for Stanfield as they made a small comeback with seven field goals and two foul shots for a total of 16 for the quarter and 26 for the half. Heppner still claimed the quarter with two hoops and seven foul shots for 29 for the half.

The third quarter was a little more exciting for the Mustangs as they claimed the quarter with 19 points, leaving the Tigers behind with 15.

The ball really was up in the air in the fourth quarter as the Mustangs scored 12 baskets and one from the line for 25, Stanfield, giving their all, couldn't penetrate the Mustangs as they scored nine points in the fourth.

Heppner, 73: Rick Cole 1-0-2-2, John Bier 2-2-2-6, Jim Launer 3-3-4-9, Brett Sherer 2

Swim team parents meet

Heppner Swim Team parents met Tues., Feb. 10 to discuss team membership, team activities, and to elect officers.

Membership is free, with the exception of a season ticket for admission to the pool, says newly-elected President Kit George. He stresses that all ages of kids, very young children as well as older ones, are invited to join and prospective members may sign up at Heppner Grade School. A swim team display, including a sign-up sheet, is being featured now at the school. George says that parents with questions concerning the team can contact any swim team officers.

Officers elected were: president, Kit George; vice-president, Doug Rathbun; secretary, Bette Forrar; treasurer, Diana Ball; and meet director, Donna Bergstrom.

The team is also planning a carnival in conjunction with the Heppner Moonlight Sale in April.

Area softball organizational meeting Wed.

Men and women, 30 years and over, "interested in fun and relaxation," are invited to attend a meeting to organize local adult softball teams.

The meeting will be held in the banquet room of the Wagon Wheel Restaurant on Wed., Feb. 25, at 8 p.m.

For more information, call 676-5025.
