

Next time try the front door?

Workers moved food cases into S and J Market in Heppner last week. It became necessary to remove the front window of the store when it was discovered that the cases were too big to fit through the door.

The owners of the market, Scott and Jeannie Adkisson, say that the cases will be used to display meat and produce, new items soon to be available.

Red Cross Wine, Food Festival Sat., March 7

Final plans are being completed for the 2nd Annual International Wine and Food Festival sponsored by the Umatilla County Red Cross, Saturday, March 7, at the Pendleton Armory from 4 p.m. to 9 p.m. Admission to the festival is $1 for adults and 50 cents for children. Script will be sold for the wine and food.

This festival will help to celebrate the 100th birthday of Red Cross. Last year it was estimated that over 2,000 people attended. Twenty booths have been reserved for the festival which will feature a variety of delicacies from all over the world. Wine will be supplied by Graybeal Distributing and Umatilla Distributors from Pendleton and cheese will also be offered. "Music, door prizes and lots of socializing will make this an evening you will not want to miss," said a Red Cross spokesperson.

The Umatilla County Red Cross offers assistance in case of disasters and helps military families and others in need. They sponsor swim programs, first-aid courses, blood programs and many other projects. The money raised at this function will be used in Umatilla County projects.

For further information call the Red Cross office at 276-1211.

Oregon Retired Educator's Unit 9 plans meeting

Arthritis will be the program topic at a meeting of the Oregon Retired Educator's Unit 9 scheduled for 1 p.m., Saturday, March 7. The group will meet in the Fellowship Room of the Assembly of God Church at 7th and Hurlburt in Hermiston.

The one-hour program will include presentation of a film entitled, "One in Sixteen Million," which emphasizes the importance of proper diagnosis and treatment to minimize arthritis pain and disability.

Mr. Don Coverball, executive director of The Arthritis Foundation Oregon Chapter of Portland will be present to answer questions and give information. The public is invited.

This health education program was developed by the National Retired Teacher's Association and the American Association of Retired Persons in cooperation with the Arthritis Foundation.

Road dir. says crews could do most work

Morrow County Road Director Don Briggs told the Gazette-Times Monday that county crews would be capable of doing nearly all road work considered under a proposed $16 million road rehabilitation and building project.

Briggs made the comments following reports of efforts underway to put a levy before the voters to upgrade and build roads in Morrow County.

"We will have to contract some of the work," said Briggs. "But we (road dept.) can build roads." He said the crews could handle the proposed road work up to resurfacing, but that portion of the job may need outside contracting.

"There is a happy medium," he says of outside contracting and work to be done by the county.

Young — Paustian

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Paustian, Heppner, announce the engagement of their daughter, Debbie, Kennewick, Wa., to Bruce Young, Heppner.

Debbie and Bruce will be married May 2 in Heppner.

Harshmans to celebrate golden anniversary

All the friends and relatives of Loyd E. Harshman and Edna (Lovgren) Harshman, whom may have been missed with an announcement are invited to share their 50th anniversary celebration, March 7, 1981 in the Milton-Freewater Community Center (one block from the Tepee), 109 N.E. 5th, Milton-Freewater, Oregon from 1 to 4 p.m. Bring only your memories (written please), newspaper clippings or memory photos.

Loyd E. Harshman and Edna Lovgren were married March 2, 1931, in Heppner by the Reverend Moore.

Loyd herded sheep for McCurdy across the mountains above Heppner for many years. Edna packed for the sheep trips and was a full-time mother and housewife raising four children; Mrs. Billie Coppock of Lone Rock, Oregon, Bud Harshman of Walla Walla, Washington, Mrs. Anna Abel of Milton-Freewater and Frank Harshman of Dayton, Washington. They also have many grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Loyd and Edna moved from Heppner to Dayton, Washington, in 1957, where Loyd logged and then became an operator oiler in the Operating Engineers Union until his retirement in 1972. Edna worked at Green Giant Cannery and cooked at the old and new Dayton Hospital.

They then moved in 1975 to a small acreage west of Milton-Freewater where they raise sheep, calves and a small garden.

Mustangs end season with home loss

By ANDREW GORMAN

The Heppner Mustangs ended their season last Saturday night as they took on the Wasco County Redsidies at our house. The Redsidies left with a victory, 59 to 40.

Wasco County made a big jump in the first quarter to override the Mustangs. The Redsidies pumped eight shots from outside to themselves 16 points, leaving Heppner behind with four field goals. Second quarter was pretty much the same thing as the Redsidies took off, getting farther and farther out of sight with six buckets and three for three foul shots for 15 for the quarter. Heppner, still with cold hads, scored four hoops for eight points for the quarter. Score at halftime was Maupin, 31, to Heppner, 16.

The third quarter was a little bit better for the Mustangs as they kept Wasco from scoring as much as before. The Redsidies kept pursuing the Mustangs and sank five goals and one foul shot for 10 for the quarter. The Mustangs, dragging behind with 4 field goals, put the third quarter score Maupin, 42, to Mustangs, 24.

In the fourth quarter, the Mustangs made a desperate attack to make a final comeback but it wasn't enough to overcome the Redsidies. Maupin ended up with
