By MICHELLE LARUE

The Cardinal girls traveled to their last game of the season on Saturday, February 21, and were defeated by Cascade Locks, 48-49.

The Cards took the lead in the first quarter, 6-4. The Cards increased their lead to 8 at the half, 22-14.

The Pirates came out at the half to outscore the Cards, 12-18, in the third quarter. The Cards took a two-point advantage into the last quarter.

In the last quarter the Cards were outscored by three. A jump ball was called under the Pirates' basket with four seconds left to go in the game, with the Cards on top by one, 48-47. The tip went to a Pirate girl and she made the winning lay-in with one second left on the clock. The Cards were handed a close, 48-49, loss.

The Cards went to the free throw line 42 times and connected 22 of them for 52 percent. The Pirates shot 17 of 32 for 53 percent from the line. Cindy Hill shot 11 of 17 from the line to have a game high of 15 points.

Cascade Locks 49: Murray 5 5-12 15, Raines 1 8-9 10, Murphy 4 0-0, Murphy 2 1-4 5, Walker 1 2-3 4, Whittenberg 1 1-4 3, Brigham 1 0-0 2, VanLaner 1 0-0 2, Green, Rutherford, Ramsey.

June 48: Hill 2 11-17 15, Thompson 3 5-4 11, Palmer 3 3-6 9, Holtz 3 0-2 6, Morter 1 2-4 4, Doherty 1 0-3 2, McElligott 0 1-2 1, Drinkard, Meyers.

Fouled out: Palmer, Hill, Murray, Walker.

Lovgren propels Devin's team past Les Schwab

Mark Lovgren's 35 points propelled Dick Devin's team past Les Schwab, 72-53, to highlight Heppner men's city league basketball action Sunday night.

Roger Britt scored 15 points and Rocky Britt, 10, in the win, while Kevin Rountree had 18 and Steve Peck, 12, for Les Schwab.

In other games, Rick Johnson's team upended Forest Service, 52-40. Don Barber's team rolled past Mike Smith's team, 75-53, and Ione topped Dave Allstott's team, 65-54.

Gary Watkins pumped in 18 points and Gary Van Arsdale added 10 to spark Johnston's team, while Forest Service was led by Howard Burnside with 21 and Les Polzen with 10.

For Barber's team, Pat Campbell collected 16 points, LaVerne Van Marter, 15, and Rick Weatherill, 12. Clay Papineau paced Smith's team with 16 points, followed by Roger Krieger with 12 and Larry Smith with 10.

The duo of Dick Snider (20 points) and Joel Peterson (18) shot down Allstott's team, who was led by Mike Stookey with 14, Bruce Kestler and Allstott with 12 apiece, and Ken Grieb with 10.

This Sunday's schedule is as follows: Smith (1-9) vs. Johnston (7-3) at 5 p.m.; Allstott (5-5) vs. Eggers (7-2) at 6 p.m.; Barber (9-1) vs. Forest Service (1-9) at 7 p.m.; and Ione (8-2) vs. Les Schwab (1-8) at 8 p.m. Devin (5-5) has a bye.

Women's Day at Irrigon Assembly of God

It was Women's Ministries Day at the Irrigon Assembly of God on Sunday. Betty Morrow was in charge of the opening service, with women of the church participating. Two groups of missionettes sang and gave their missionettes' pledge.

Wrangler Rod, youth evangelist was introduced and conducted a family crusade Sunday through Thursday.
