IUCC auction, barbecue set Sat., June 6

Save the first Saturday in June. The 18th annual Auction and Barbecue sponsored by the Ione United Church of Christ will be held at the Willows Grange Hall on June 6.

Keith and Judy Rea, general chairpersons, met with members of the planning committees on Thursday, March 19, and everything is "go".

Bill Rietmann, merchandise chairman, asks that anyone call him if they have articles that they wish to donate for the auction. The women of the church are making a quilt that will be auctioned off besides all the handmade things offered in the country store.

Gooseberry Livestock club meets

By PAULA PALMER

The Gooseberry Livestock Club held a 4-H meeting at the Stacey Lovgren home on March 15 at 3 p.m.

President Anne Van Schoiack, told members of upcoming events such as the steer weigh-in and demonstration day to be held April 11 and that steers need to be halter broken by this date.

Guest speaker, Ken Miller, then told members about how and why record books should be done. He gave some pointers on how to keep accurate books and what judges look for when they judge record books.

Members were given a pamphlet on the Hoard's Dairymen 1981 Cow Judging Contest and were encouraged to judge the cows. Entries for the contest had to be in March 21.

It was decided for the next meeting the club would have a contest for identifying all parts of the four market animals and a dairy cow.

John Smith joins Les Schwab Tires

John Smith

John Smith has joined Les Schwab Tires in Heppner as assistant manager.

Smith, 23, comes from Pendleton where he was in sales and service at the Les Schwab Tire Center there for the past three years.

Smith's wife, Salli, will accompany him to Heppner.
