in view for the town by means of diking or pumping. The 1948 flood was high enough to form an 18-inch pool on most of the downtown area.

The Ione High School band under the direction of Gary Stephenson received a top rating of "I" at the Eastern Oregon Music Festival held last Saturday at Pendleton. The Ione band was entered in the class "D" division but played class "C" music.

Under the direction of Norman Peters, the Heppner High School band received a 2 rating at the Eastern Oregon Music Festival in Pendleton. The Heppner High class "B" mixed chorus received a 2 and the grade school band received a 3 rating. Both of these are directed by Mr. Peters.

FIVE YEARS AGO

A rummage sale sponsored by the Heppner Swim Team Association has been tentatively set for April 23 and 24.

Forrie Burkenbine accepted the gavel and office of Exalted Ruler of the Heppner Elks Lodge from Dean Naffziger on April 1, when Naffziger joined the ranks of the Past Exalted Rulers.

Beginning April 1, the Lexington postal station has been relocated. It has been returned to Del's Market which was its home for many years.

The station equipment was moved from the Ed Struthers home to Del's Market last weekend. Marie Struthers will continue acting as postal clerk until March 31. Del Piper submitted a bid that was accepted for the station and has taken back the responsibility that he discharged for many years.

The trees in the Heppner Main Street Park were expertly pruned by Edwin Cutting and his son, Robert Cutting, who was visiting from Estacada last week. This was a Heppner Garden Club project carried out by the Cuttings and Barbara James. The men cut out less desirable growth and Barbara worked at cleaning up their cuttings. Several Garden Club volunteers were ill and the worthwhile project fell to just two members, Ed and Barbara, and the visitor from Estacada.

The distribution of $27,500 to 18 Oregon counties to cover eligible costs of maintenance and operation of local museums during fiscal year 1975 was announced by Fred B. Klaboe, State Highway Division administrator.

The apportionment is authorized by statue and goes to the various counties as reimbursement for amounts spent in the support of local musuems. The amounts ranged from $229.53 to $2,352.76. The Morrow County Museum at Heppner received $1,029.43.

Smelt selling for six pounds for $1 are costing operators of the Trojan Nuclear Plant a good bit more than that in time and effort. Under the technical specifications governing operation of the 1.1 million kilowatt generating facility, anytime more than 20 fish are found in or near water intake structures in a 24-hour period, the Nuclear Regulatory Commission msut be notified.
