What's your opinion?

QUESTION OF THE WEEK: "Do you think there should be another election as to whether the Willow Creek dam should be built?"

"I would suppose so," said Anne Mae Steagall, 54, Heppner. "There are so many people against it I think they should be able to express their opinions on it. A lot of things have changed."

Death Notice Walter Scott

EUGENE - Word has been received here of the death of a former area resident, Walter Scott, Parkside Mobile Village, 3950 Coburg Rt., Sp. 83, Eugene, Ore. 97401.

A complete obituary will be published next week.

SHERIFF'S REPORT

The Sheriff's Dept. at the Morrow County Courthouse in Heppner reported the following incidents during the past week.

On April 1, Darryl Dick, West Extension Irrigation District, reported offensive littering. A Morrow County Sheriff's deputy responded to the call.

On March 30, a grass fire was reported at Wilson and Paul Smith Roads in Boardman. The Boardman Fire Dept. responded.

On March 29, Ray Voller, Irrigon, reported two calves missing since sometime the previous night. The Sheriff's Dept. responded.

Also on March 29, a complaint was received from Wilson Trailer Park, Irrigon, regarding alleged criminal mischief. The Sheriff's Dept. responded.

In another March 29 incident, Myron Huston, Heppner, reported being burglarized at his residence. A Heppner Police Dept. officer responded to the call.

Go for the gold and silver too

The Ione Extension Club is working hard to make this year's Easter Egg hunt a big success for all the children in the Ione area.

Kids through fourth grade are invited to come and hunt Saturday, April 18, at 10 a.m. in the Ione City Park. There will be special eggs marked with 25 cent entitling the holder to a free quarter from the sponsors, and also a golden and a silver egg will be hidden for each age group.

Heppner School reunion Aug. 9

The fourth Heppner School reunion, all classes included, will be held on Sunday, August 9, in Heppner.

Persons who have information on addresses of classmates, relatives and friends please send it to Carlita Bloodworth, Box 361, Lexington, Ore. 97839.

Ione Extension Club to meet

The Ione Extension Club will be holding its monthly meeting on Monday night, April 13 at the home of Monica Swanson. Members are urged to come and join in the discussion and fun, and bring along a friend.

Weddings

Rock-Murray

Sabrina Murray and Cecil Rock were married on Valentine's Day at the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints by President Allan Alder, assisted by Pastor Allen Gordanier of the Irrigon Assembly of God.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Murray. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Rock, Sr. Both families live in Irrigon.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of chantilly lace, made with a high neck and cathedral train. The bride carried red roses.

Verna Vollmer was her maid of honor while her two sisters, Annel and Ericka, and Tammy Rock, who is a sister to the groom, were her bridesmaids.

The best man was Daniel Creamer. Ushers were Terry Seel and Jim Sewell.

Merrissa Murray was flower girl and Casey Robins was the ring bearer.

The young couple spent their honeymoon in Hawaii and have now returned to their home in Irrigon. The groom is a partner in the family business of Irrigon Irrigation. Both the bride and groom graduated from Riverside High School in Boardman.

The bride is employed by Earth Carpet in Ione.
