

HHS students compete in high school rodeo

Two Redmond High School students, Chris Dahl, and Jody Foss, won the all around boy and girl titles, respectively, at the Emerald Empire High School Rodeo held at Eugene April 4 and 5.

Heppner finished second in that competition with 72 points. Redmond won the team trophy with 138 1/2 points. Ten Heppner High students competed in the rodeo with the following results:

 Tony Currin - 8th, team roping with Scott Scramsted, 8th, calf roping.
 Jeff Bailey - 3rd, bareback, 4th, cow cutting.
 Brett Shere - 3rd, steer wrestling.
 Lee Rice - 1st, bareback;
 Mike Currin - 7th, calf roping;
 Tara Mahoney - 1st, break-away roping, 3rd, team roping with Chris Dahl, 6th, pole bending; 4th, cow cutting;

 Don Kindsfather - 5th, team roping with Jody Foss;
 Anne Van Schoiack - 9th, pole bending, 10th, barrels.
 Also participating from Heppner were Earl Hammond, Cliff Dougherty and Jack McQuire.
 The next high school rodeo will be at Rufus, April 24 and 25.

Nazarene contest underway

Last Sunday was the first Sunday of the Sunday School Contest at the Heppner Church of the Nazarene.

The contest will continue through the month of April. Prizes are given to children and teenagers who bring visitors and to the one who is visiting.

All who earn eight points will be given a banana split party. First and second place prizes for the most points will also be given.

Easter services at the Nazarene Church begin at 9 a.m. Easter Sunday morning with breakfast cooked by the teenagers.

Following the breakfast at a 10:30 service, the children will be presenting an Easter program and the new teen choir will be singing, followed by an Easter message from Pastor Wilks.
