Delpha Jones • 989-8189

The Thursday evening special meeting of Holly Rebekah Lodge was well attended to honor the Rebekah State Assembly President Vivian Rome.

The evening started with dinner served in the dining room. The tables were individually set for groups of eight and were decorated with spring flowers of yellow daffodils and tulips, the president's colors and with lighted candles. Serving the dinner were Donna and Lynn Dee Devin and Dee Dee Epping.

The meeting was called to order by Noble Grand Joyce Buchanan. The tableau of Rebekah at the well was portrayed by Hilda Yocom, Virginia Peck and Dorothy Burcham. The introduction committee, consisting of Delpha Jones, Gladys VanWinkle and Virginia Peck, introduced the following guests for the evening, the Assembly President, the Assembly Marshall Jane Gregory, Assembly Vice-President Marie McVey and Past Assembly President Zelma Watkins.

Gifts were presented to guests and each gave a few meaningful words to the ladies. The Rebekah president then told of several things that the Oddfellows and Rebekahs are doing this year and planning for the future. The project was an up-standing round fireplace in copper tones, installed in the social rooms of the friendship house. This being finished, the project of the perpetual loan fund was accepted as the project. The president spoke of the United Pilgrimage to the United Nations, and stressed that this is the only national organization that is allowed to send youngsters on this delightful trip. The camp ground at Florence, Ore., has had extensive work done on it, and she urged that people take advantage of this project and stop for an overnight camp.

Holly Rebekah Lodge expressed their thanks to Gladys Drake from Ione who was their musician for the evening. Visiting with her was her sister, Helen Pettyjohn, also of Bunchgrass in Ione. Decorations of the lower hall consisted of a lovely plaque with a piano musician noted and several of her emblems burned in it. The president asked that she may have the plaque taken to Assembly. Roll call of lodges was as follows:

Purity, 1, Winona, 1, Grass Valley, 1, Pearl, 1, Bunchgrass, 2, San Souci, 2, and Holly, 17.

Let us not forget that the Morrow County Coronation for the queen and her court will be held at the Lexington Grange hall on Saturday evening. The festivities will start with a pollock dinner at 6:30 p.m. with the main course furnished by the grange and salads and desserts by the guests. The Lexington Grange invites all who would like to attend to come and enjoy the evening with us.

Mrs. John Karran of Pilot Rock and mother, Mrs. Bob Cool of Pendleton, were Lexington callers on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mick Sharp were Fossil visitors on Saturday.

Wayne Papineau and Lawrence Schoonover were Burns, Ore., business callers last week.

The Blue Bird group from Lexington and Ione attended the skating party held in Heppner for the Blue Birds and Blue Jays of this area on Sat. All report a really good time.

chairman, Donna Fortenberry, by her officers, and a lovely gift was presented to Assembly President Vivian Rome, and her Marshall

Jane Gregory by the vice grands of the three lodges present. Mildred Padberg, Mary Wright and Gladys VanWinkle.

A tribute to the past chairman was enjoyed, and place mats made by the San Souci sisters were presented each PC. Papers of explanation of several aspects of Rebekahs were given; life membership very well prepared by Bunchgrass and delivered by Edith Mathews and decoration of chivalry prepared by Holly and delivered by Delpha Jones.

The group then heard a most interesting and instructive address by the visiting president. She told of the float in the New Year's Parade in Pasadena, Calif., and it is hoped that the local group will be able to help financially with this as the brothers and sisters in the neighboring states work many long hours building the float. The president also spoke of the friendship house in Portland, and the members presiding there, the park at Florence, Oregon, the loan fund, and the work of the Oddfellows and Rebekah lodges. She urged that the lodges in eastern Oregon be represented at the assembly in Eugene in May. She thanked all for their kindness and hospitality. The marshal also gave her thanks, and said she would be back another time for a visit. It was also told that the president spent some time on Friday at Pioneer Memorial Nursing Home where she visited with Maude Pointer, a Rebekah and a patient at the nursing home.

An invitation to meet in Lexington in 1993 was accepted and the officers for 1982 were then elected as follows: Vera Rietmann, chairman; Dorothy Burcham, vice chairman; Edith Mathews, Secretary; and Treasurer Virginia Peck.

The chairman then appointed the following officers for next district meeting: Warden Helen Pettyjohn; Conductor Lucile Rietmann; Chaplain Ruby Roberts; RSC Norma Rea; LSC Joyce Buchanan; OSG Adelle LaTrace; ISG Berniece Nash; RS Chairman Delpha Jones; LS Chairman Margaret Akers; Musician Gladys Drake; RSVG Leila Palmer; and LSVJ Jo Huston.

The next meeting of business during the good of the order was the presentation of seals for the unwritten work to Gladys VanWinkle, Delpha Jones, Joyce Buchanan, Catie Padberg and Florence McMillan, all of Holly. There were 33 sisters and two brothers registered for the day.

The chairman had very clever programs with a rooster "Crow out for the order" theme and the Rebekah insignia printed on them. Name tags were printed with the same design.

Plans are already underway for the 1982 District Convention in Ione hosted by Bunchgrass Rebekah Lodge. "Hope to see all the Rebekahs of our district there next year, and a great big thanks to San Souci and sister Donna for such a fine district meeting," said a spokesperson.
