Special diet program set

Do you ever wonder why sodium in the diet may be a problem? Or why there is so much concern about cholesterol in food? Or sugar?

Margaret Bakke, Oregon State University Extension nutrition specialist, will answer these questions and many more when she comes to Umatilla and Morrow counties April 23. Mrs. Bakke will present two identical programs on special diets, with emphasis on sodium, sugar, and fat in the daily diet.

Mrs. Bakke will also discuss the changes in the recommended daily dietary allowances for individuals. She will be available to answer questions. According to Extension Home Economist Molly Saul, homemakers have expressed concern and lack of knowledge of special dietary problems. They read about dietary concerns in popular publications and wonder if the information applies to them. For this reason the Home Extension Program Development Committee thought a special program on dietary concerns was needed.

Mrs. Bakke will present two identical programs April 23. The first will be 10 a.m. at the Far West Federal Savings, 1701 S. W. Court, Pendleton. The second will be at 2 p.m., Park Hall, Umatilla County Fairgrounds, Hermiston.

Mrs. Saul states that there is no charge to attend. All interested persons are invited. There will be handout literature to take home.

JUSTICE COURT

Justice Court at the Morrow County Courthouse in Heppner handled the following cases over the past week:

William Roy Ford, III, 642 N.W. 7th St., Pendleton, exceeding maximum speed (67 miles per hour in a 55 mph speed limit) - $65 bail forfeited.

Danny Lee Wilson, P.O. Box 372, 'C' St., Lexington, violation of basic rule (45 mph in a 35 mph designated speed) - $8 fine.

Kathleen Susan Mishler, 615 W. Oak, Hermiston, exceeding maximum speed (65 mph in a 55 mph speed limit) - $34 bail forfeited.

Joe Lewis Halvorsen, 3rd St., P.O. Box 305, Ione, exceeding maximum speed (75 mph in a 55 mph speed limit) - $55 fine; and Leo Lanas Barnes, P.O. Box 956, Heppner, hauling a leaking and sifting load - $15 fine.

SHERIFF'S REPORT

The Sheriff's Dept. at the Morrow County Courthouse in Heppner handled the following calls during the past week:

On April 8, a chimney fire was reported at the Ralph Marlatt residence. The Heppner Fire Dept. responded to the call.

Also on April 8, Steve Wagenblast, Lexington, reported a lost nine-month-old brown and white Brittany spaniel. The dog, lost around April 6, was last seen near the John Ledbetter residence at Black Horse Canyon.

On April 7, Lloyd Peck, Sam Boardman Elementary School reported a break-in. The Boardman Police Dept. responded.

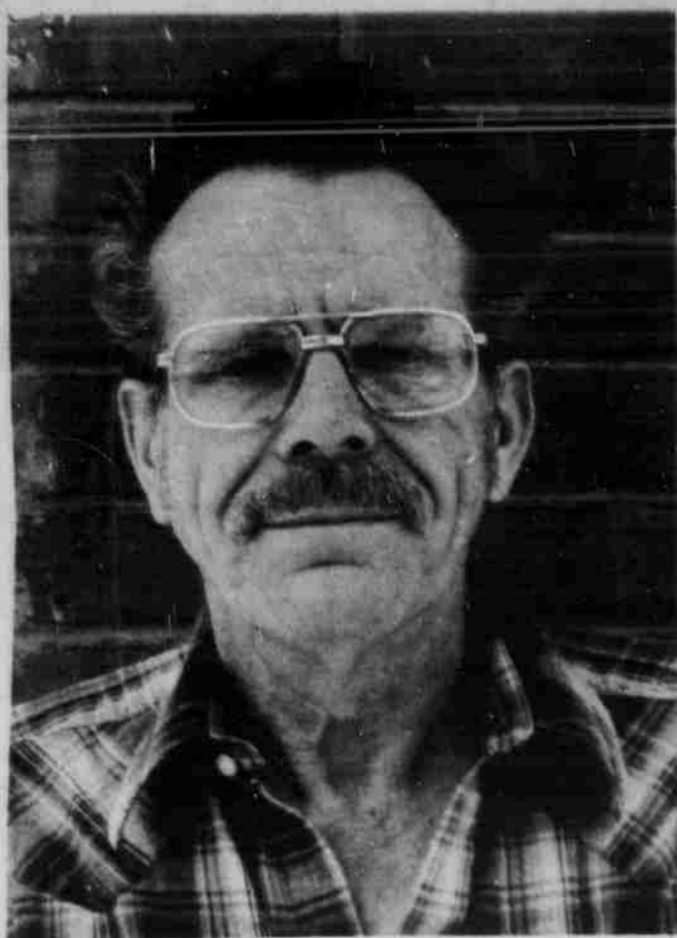

Also on April 7, the Boardman Fire Dept. responded to a brush fire that got out of control at the Boardman Cemetery.

On April 5, Georgia Rathbun reported a house fire at the residence next to the Court St. Market. The Heppner Fire Dept. responded to the call.

Also on April 5, the Oregon State Police at The Dalles requested a Boardman ambulance for an accident on Interstate 84 between mile post 149 and 150. One car was reported to have rolled over. One injury resulted from the accident. A Boardman ambulance responded to the call.

On April 3, Jerry Wayne Campbell, 36, Irrigon, was arrested by the Sheriff's Dept. on a Baker Co. warrant for an alleged probation violation. The subject was lodged at the Hermiston Safety Center.

What's your opinion?

QUESTION: "What is your opinion of people who cheat on their income taxes?"

"Cheating on your income tax is like cheating on yourself and indeed it is a small token to pay for the privilege of living in this great country.

"The way the governmental systems are operated today you have many ways to receive your tax dollar back for the betterment of your community," said Jerry Sweeney, Heppner.

Correction

The time for a blood pressure clinic at the Ione Bank of Eastern Oregon kitchen on Wednesday, April 15, was listed incorrectly in last week's Health Dept. notice of the Gazette-Times. The correct time for that clinic is 3 to 4 p.m.

Ione grade school open house Mon.

The children of the Ione Grade school, along with the teachers, are hosting their parents to an afternoon open house next Monday, April 20. Parents can meet their children in the school cafeteria at 12:10 for lunch, and then it's on to the classrooms for a visit. After the 1:30 p.m. recess, the students are planning entertainment and refreshments in the gymnasium for their parents.

Wandering balloon turns up in field

Eddy Rietmann and his dad, Wayne, turned up more than dirt while discing in their field last Friday.

The pair found a balloon with a card in it. The balloon had traveled all the way from Foster, Ore., and read: "Hi balloon friend, My school is participating in the 'Weekly Reader' Writing Pals program. Please put the card in an envelope along with your name and address, city and state where you found my card. Then mail the card to me: Foster School, P.O. Box 747, Foster, Oregon 97836. If you would like to tell me something about yourself I'd love to hear from you and I promise to write back." The card was signed "Michelle Davis, sixth grade, Foster School."

Mrs. Rietmann said the family, which consists of Mr. and Mrs. Rietmann, Eddy, 5, Leonard, 2, and their niece, Cindy, 16, looked Foster up on the map and it is located between Albany and Eugene.

Eddy shared his long-distance find with his kindergarten classmates in show and tell Monday.

Dog owner warned in Irrigon dog controversy

BY MARY ANN CERULLO

Morrow County Court came to a decision during last Wednesday's regular court session concerning a pack of roaming dogs in Irrigon.

A series of complaints had been filed on approximately 20 dogs that had reportedly been running loose in the Irrigon area since February. At that time, the dogs were being cared for by Mrs. Glenna Greer, agent for the Stokes Landing Humane Society.

On April 8, Mrs. Greer presented affidavits which were reviewed by the county court.

Greer reported that since the last dog complaint hearing of April 1, all 22 dogs which were under Stokes Landing Humane Society's care were turned over to the Pasco Humane society. Presently, six dogs owned personally by the Greers remain on the Greer's land.

A discussion followed concerning Mrs. Greer's enquiry as to whether Morrow County had a leash law.

Ann Spicer, Morrow County district attorney, was present and replied that no, there wasn't a leash law.

"The problem with a leash law," Spicer said, "is that the county needs a place to put the roaming dogs, like a pound."

According to Commissioner Dorothy Krebs, the installation of a dog pound was defeated by the voters around a year ago.

Complaints may be filed on a dog which continually trespasses or chases livestock. Such a dog may be named a public nuisance, said Spicer.

The court's final decision concerning Mrs. Greer's case was for Mrs. Greer to keep her dogs from roaming and becoming a nuisance.

Spicer warned Mrs. Greer that further complaints concerning the remaining dogs could mean an order to have the dogs destroyed.

Wedding Announcements

Gary Jones and Marge Edens of Hood River announce the engagement of their daughter, Holly L. Jones, to Don L. Shockley.

The bride-to-be was born in Heppner and moved to Hood River shortly after her birth. Her father was a long-time Heppner resident.

Holly's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Jones of Heppner and Mrs. Emma Barber of Vancouver, Wash. Great-grandparents are Mrs. C.N. Jones, of Heppner and Mrs. Conrad Cooper of Hood River.

Parents of the bridegroom-elect are Mr. and Mrs. Pete Shockley of Winter, Calif. His grandmother is Mrs. Bessie Shockley of Hood River.

A June 27 wedding is planned at the Mount Hood Assembly of God Church.

'Fine educator' to retire in June

Millie Hanna

BY MARY ANN CERULLO

Mrs. Mildred (Millie) Hanna has taught the third grade for 28 years at Heppner Elementary School. On June 3 of this year, Mrs. Hanna will retire.

Mrs. Hanna, originally from Benchland, Montana, taught for a year and a half before coming to Heppner. According to Mrs. Hanna, she moved to Morrow County for experience and travel, and decided to stay when she met John Hanna, a local farmer.

Millie and John Hanna married in May of 1955. Mrs. Hanna's resignation was accepted last March by the Morrow County School Board.

"She is an excellent person and a fine educator," said Morrow County Superintendent Matt Doherty. "We hate to lose her, but after 28 years a person has a right to quit."
