

Close to Home... Mary Ann Cerullo

This week, "Close to Home" is doubling as an Idea Exchange Column.

Since this is the first Idea Exchange of many (I hope), I asked some of my co-workers here at the G-T to share some of their household hints. I even threw in one of my own. Here's what I came up with:

A friend of mine gave me fresh cream straight from her cow. I tried and tried to whip it for dessert but it just sat there. It wasn't until I added a couple drops of lemon juice that I was able to whip up the cream just right - Norma Bessey.

I've been doing this with good results - Sometimes I want to put a plant into a hanging basket, but the pot has holes in the bottom for watering. So, I just snip off the corner of a garbage bag and fit it over the bottom of the pot to protect the basket - Patti Allstott.

It's almost painting season again... To prevent splattering hinges or knobs when painting a door, rub a little petroleum jelly on them first. Stray paint will come off easily - Mary Ann Cerullo.

To keep your cut flowers fresh looking longer, add two or three drops of ammonia to the vase water - Eileen Saling.

Do you have any ideas that may be helpful around the house or yard? "Close to Home" welcomes any contributions.

Drop your ideas by the G-T office or write to: Gazette-Times, P.O. Box 337, Heppner, Ore. 97836.

Claeys - Clow

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Claeys

Wedding vows were exchanged by Randall Jay Claeys and Carmen Michele Clow on April 18 at the Faith Baptist Church in Salem, Oregon. Miss Dwana DeMain was maid of honor, and Mr. Randall Vandewalle acted as best man.

Following the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served at the Masonic hall at Dayton, Oregon, with close family and friends attending. Tables were decorated with pink carnations, white daisies, and baby's breath. The three-tier wedding cake carried the theme with pink roses.

The bride is a graduate of Heppner High School, A-Arts Beauty School at Eugene, Oregon, and is now working as a beautician at the Meir and Frank store in Salem. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Clow of Irrigon, Oregon.

The groom is a native of Illinois where his mother, Mrs. Joyce Williams, still resides. He is currently working in the home building industry.

The couple is at home at 480 Madroma St. S.E., Salem, Oregon 97302.
