Veteran's Poppies to be offered

Friday, May 22

By BET GREEN

The "Best of Times" will be the theme and atmosphere, on Friday, May 15, at 6:30 p.m., when 51 students and their parents gather for the Heppner 8th grade graduation at the Heppner Elks Lodge. Among the honored students and their parents will be 30 guests of teachers and administrators.

Presiding over the evening's dinner will be Master of Ceremonies Ron Farris. Guest Speaker will be Jim Ackley and Damon Wilson will read the class prophecies.

Rainbow colors will accent the theme and dance to be held following the graduation from 8 p.m. to 11 p.m. Students from lone Junior High School are invited to attend the dance.

"In Flanders Field the poppies blow - Between the crosses, row on row ..."

The American Legion, Post No. 87 and the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post No. 4184 and their auxiliaries will be offering their Veteran's Poppies one day only this year, Friday, May 22.

The stands will be located between Peterson's Jewelers and the Post Office and at Central Market.

Marriage licenses

Gene Sartain, Lexington, and Deborah Hunt, Provo, Utah.

Richard Calvin Turrell, Heppner and Vicki Marie Ekstrom, Heppner.

The red memorial poppies are made by disabled veterans, who receive a small sum for each poppy.

The money they receive for their efforts enables them to buy personal items not furnished by the hospitals, although many save it for the day they can be discharged or send it to their families. Making the poppies helps them pass the long day.

months or years they face.

The basic purpose of Poppy Day is to offer the American public an opportunity to honor the war dead and to assist the living.

Donations of any amount are accepted. All funds received are used to aid disabled veterans, their families and the families of deceased servicemen.
