Lexington news

Delpha Jones • 989-3189

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Messenger, Irene Padberg and Elsie Fox were Hermiston and McNary visitors on Thursday where they visited Dolly Allstott and Florence McMillan.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Yocum on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Rinehart and family of Ukiah. Crystal and Amber Rinehart stayed for a few days visit with her aunt and uncle.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Chick and family were visitors with Venice Hendrickson on Sunday.

Holly Rebekah Lodge met for their regular meeting on Thursday evening with the Noble Grand in the chair. Plans were made to initiate two candidates at the Holly Lodge on June 19, a Friday evening, in a special meeting. Plans were also discussed for a cradle shower honoring Debbie Sharp. Debbie met the 4th of June for the regular meeting and practiced for initiation, and Past Noble Grand club met at the home of Gladys VanWinkle on the 5th with Mrs. VanWinkle and Mrs. Yocum as hostesses. Virginia Peck and Delpha Jones gave reports on the actions of the Rebekah Lodge assembly they recently attended in Springfield at the Rode-Way Inn. Following the regular business meeting refreshments were served by the hospitality committee. Don't forget club at the home of Leila Palmer on the next Thursday, June 11.

Mr. and Mrs. C.C. Jone and Mrs. Vic Groshens were among those who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bown, at a buffet luncheon in Hermiston on Sunday honoring Linda Smith on her graduation from Hermiston High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Cutsforth and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Papineau motored to the Holiday Inn at Wilsonville, Ore., where they were guests of Gene Heliker and his band The Susanville Stage Band. Enroute there they visited a daughter of Mr. Cutsforth, Vesta Kilkenny, and enroute home they visited Mrs. Cutsforth's mother, Minerva Denslinger in The Dalles.

Jackie Papineau was taken to a hospital in Pendleton, suffering from a broken hip received in a fall at her home. Jeanette Hughes of Juneau, Alaska, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glover Peck. Mike Peck, a nephew of Mrs. Hughes, returned home with her for an extended visit.

The Committee on Women's Activities of Lexington Grange which was scheduled for Tuesday, June 9, at the Cutsforth Cabin has been changed to Monday, June 8 starting at 10:30 a.m. The day will consist of a potluck dinner at noon, visiting and cards in the afternoon. Hopefully, all business will be taken care of in the a.m. All CWA members are cordially invited of all the granges in Wheatland Pomona District.

Mr. and Mrs. O.W. Cutsforth entertained several members of neighboring CWA groups at their mountain cabin on Monday. A lovely potluck dinner was enjoyed and the ladies later played fun games - one of them a teacher-pupil lesson on golfing with Judy Stevens and Barbara Cutsforth taking the important parts. Those attending were Dorothy Ransom and Marie White from Greenfield Grange in Boardman, Judy Stevens, Dorris Graves, Mildred Wright and Freda Slocum from Rhea Creek, and Venice Hendrickson, Virginia Peck, Charlene Papineau, Marie Steagall, Hilda Yocum, Frances Smouse and the host and hostess.

Let us not forget that Wheatland Pomona Grange will meet on June 27 at Spray Grange.

Holly Rebekah Lodge met for their regular meeting Thursday evening. Preceding the business of the evening Debbie Sharp was honored with a cradle shower by the lodge members. The gifts were presented from a table with large building blocks and storks center with other small decorations. The cake was a very pretty creation with roses, and a baby centered with tiny cribs, shoes, etc. Punch and coffee were served. At the start of the business of the evening the charter was draped for a departed sister, Thelma Smethurst. This was done by girls in long white dresses, carrying pale pink peonies, and lighting the ever-burning candle to Oddfellowship. Taking part were Hilda Yocum, Gladys VanWinkle, and Virginia Peck. The meeting was presided over by the Noble Grand Joyce Buchanan. Plans were further discussed for the initiation which is planned for June 22 at which will be initiated. A drill was planned and some practices took place. There were 15 sisters present for the meeting.

Lynn Dee Devin is employed at the Tom Martin Ranch for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Buchanan spent the weekend in Hillsboro and other places in the Willamette Valley visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Marshall and Leila Palmer were Portland callers on Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C.D. Jones motored to Hermiston on Monday to take Florence McMillan to Pendleton for an eye appointment. There they had lunch at the Bob Cool home. Mr. Jones joined the Morrow County Planning Committee at the city hall in Boardman and all enjoyed a tour of North Morrow County and dinner at the Nomad, followed by the meeting later in the evening.

Gladys VanWinkle and Hilda Yocum were hostesses to the Holly Past Noble Grand club at the VanWinkle home on Friday. A lovely lunch was served at noon after which there was a short business meeting. Plans were made to do some sewing for the nursing home and a luncheon later in the year for the neighboring PNG clubs. Those present were: Dorothy Burcham, Catie Padberg, Joyce Buchanan, Virginia Peck, Maureen Howard, Irene Padberg, Delpha Jones, and the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Glover Peck and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Peck motored to Moro on Friday evening to attend the graduation of the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Peck.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smouse, Mr. and Mrs. C.C. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Peck motored to Hermiston on Saturday, enjoying dinner there. The occasion was the birthday of Mrs. Smouse.
