LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Senate Bill 193

To the Editor:

I have received a flood of postcards concerning Senate Bill 193. I realize your concern and appreciate receiving your views on this measure. This piece of legislation has been tabled three different times in the Senate Environment and Land Use committee and I doubt very much that it will get to the Senate floor for a vote.

We are considering several bill dealing with water quality control this session and I look forward to hearing input from my constituents on any of these measures. Thank you for writing and if I can be of further assistance on any of these issues please feel free to contact me at H 371, State Capitol, Salem, OR. 97310, or call toll free 1-800-452-7813.

Sincerely,
Billy C. Bellamy
State Representative
District 55
