Over the Tee Cup

By LINDA SHAW

The last two weeks have been busy ones at Willow Creek Country Club. Kit George has the course in excellent condition, and the arrival of the new greens mower should both ease his task and allow for improved and expanded greens.

The women's group is especially active. On Tuesday, July 14, 23 women played in the morning and 18 in the afternoon. Winners in morning play were: low gross—Dorothy Hawkins, low net—Eileen Padberg, long drive—Linda Shaw, K.P.—Jan Thom, least putts—Sharon Harrison, and most 7's—Joyce Winter. Low gross winners in the afternoon were: 1st—Lois Hunt, 2nd—Pat Edmundson, and 3rd—Betty Carlson. Linda Shaw won low net, with Norma French, second and Eileen Padberg, third. Prizes for least putts were won by Eddi Skow, Muriel Palmer, Harriet Evans, and Roxie Lovgren.

Twenty women played in the morning on July 21. Pat Edmundson won low gross with a 39, and Eddi Skow and Lois Hunt tied for 2nd. Eddi Skow had long drive and K.P. and Lota Tibbles had least putts. Mary Beamer won a prize for "Best Shot of the Day."

Local golfers showed off on July 17, with two people scoring a hole in one. Kristi Edmundson aced the eighth hole at Willow Run at Boardman while playing with her parents. She used a 5-iron on the 120 yard hole. It was also witnessed by Beth Phillipi and her son. At Willow Creek on the same day, Ed Hiemstra had a perfect shot on the ninth hole, using a 7-iron. The word is that he thought the shot looked so good that he left his wife on the tee and roared off in his cart to check the outcome. It was not reported whether or not he went back to get her.

The women's match play tournament got underway July 22 and the men's match play tournament started July 26 as part of men's Sunday play. John Shaw cooked breakfast for the men's group. Jan Thom and Eddi Skow are in charge for the women, and Ron Bowman, John Edmundson, Wayland Hiatt, and John Shaw have organized the men's tournament.

The family barbecue on July 26 had 45 persons participating in a unique scramble in which each team member used only a putter and one other club. Despite this "handicap," good scores were posted. The Winters and Masseys won with a score of 28; the Kerrs and Wilsons were 2nd; and tied for 3rd were the Greens and Gundersons and the Willises, Terry Springer, and C.C. Carmichael. The Spring, et al. team won 2nd shot KP on No. 2 and the Tibbles and Hiemstras won 2nd shot KP on No. 7. John and Pat Edmundson, Claude and Happy Graham, and Doc and Lota Tibbles were in charge.

WCCC members have been invited to a visitation at Kinzua Hills August 2. In addition, the women will play at Condon August 5.
