There's something for everyone at this year's Family Fun Night August 26 at the Morrow County Fair.

Performing from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. at the rodeo arena will be a country rock band featuring local musicians.

On drums is Jim Angell and on bass is Joe Mollahan, both of Heppner; rounding out the group are Jim Ackley, Lisa Nix and Lottie Laughlin.

Joe and Jim started playing together in grade school band and continued through high school in both stage band and band. They will join Jim, Lisa and Lottie for the Fair performance.

Also featured at Family

Fun Night will be Chester Hayes, the "man on stilts." He will perform during the chicken dinner at 6:30 the evening of August 26 and will be in downtown Heppner on Tuesday, Aug. 25, as well as the fair both days, Aug. 25 and 26.

When he is not on his "elongated legs," Chester's second characteristic is Senior Guiseppe and his performing monkey, Miss Angelina (or sometimes called Boo-Boo). He and Miss Angelina replete with old fashioned musical organ grinder, will be roving the Morrow County Fairgrounds.

The little monkey has been featured in many films such as Sylester Stallone's "Paradise Alley," and "The Swash-buckler." They have appeared on television series shows, "Baretta," "The Carole Burnett Show," "Kojak," "Gun Smoke" and "Hawaii 5-0."

Chester himself is a professional movie stunt man. He also appeared at many of the major state and county fairs and outdoor celebrations in the country, as well as the Pasadena Tournament of Roses Parade and Hollywood Christmas Parade., Disneyland, Knotts Berry Farm and Magic Mountain.
