To all the friends who have been so truly kind and helpful during my illness, Dee and I wish to express our heartfelt thanks. Being home and seeing and hearing from so many has helped a great deal. I hope to return between treatments, if so, I will see all of you soon.

Cards of Thanks 1

Our heartfelt thanks and much gratitude to all of the kind Heppner firemen for the quick assistance to put out the runaway fire from one of our trailer houses.

Thanks seems inadequate but we do want you to know that we appreciate the job well done.

Many thanks to the crew of the Lexington Lumber Yard: Gene Orwick, Mike Orwick and Dwane Disque. On every fire we have flown this summer these men have shown up to load airplanes, man telephones and drive our tanker to off-field airstrips. Without their support our efforts would have been much more difficult and much less effective.

A most heartfelt thank you to my bosses - Bob and Marion Abrams, Bill Kuhn and Ann Spicer, for the lovely open house on my retirement. Also an added thank you to my friends who came and for the many cards and gifts I received.
