Weddings

Heimbigner-Burkenbine

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Heimbigner

Linda Burkenbine and Gordon Heimbigner were united in marriage on July 11 at Christ Lutheran Church in Walla Walla.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of lace and organza with lace applique accents and a beaded trim on the Queen Anne neckline with a chapel length train. She wore a matching headpiece and carried a bouquet of white roses and baby blue carnations.

Connie McLaughlin, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Debra Heimbigner, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. Both wore blue gowns of cotton lace and organza with spaghetti straps and pleated lace jackets. They each carried a single white rose accented with baby's breath.

Jennifer Burkenbine, niece of the bride was flower girl. She wore a blue organza dress and carried three baby blue carnations.

Jim Stiles, Walla Walla, and Augustine De La Rossa Jr., also of Walla Walla were groomsmen.

Allen Burkenbine, Heppner, brother of the bride and Rod Shelton were ushers.

Wedding music was provided by Jim Ackley and Lottie Laughlin, both of Heppner. "Longer" and "Always and Forever" were performed during the ceremony.

A wedding reception was held in the Fireside Room of the church. Pouring punch and coffee were Vicki Edmundson and Toshi Anderson. Jeanie Wallingford, aunt of the groom and Marlene Gray, aunt of the bride, served cake. Attending the gift table were Terri and Vicki Wallingford and Jean Clark was in charge of the guest book.

After the reception, a going away party was held in honor of the couple at the home of the grooms parents.

After a wedding trip to Victoria B.C., the couple is at home in Walla Walla.

The bride is a graduate of Heppner High School and Walla Walla Community College. She is presently employed at St. Mary's Hospital, Walla Walla.

The groom is a graduate of Walla Walla High School. He is presently attending Walla Walla Community College and is employed at Tommy's Dutch Lunch, Walla Walla.

Sheridans to be honored at reception Sept. 20

Everyone is cordially invited to join with the members of the congregation of the Heppner United Methodist Church in welcoming their pastor's wife, Linda Sheridan at a reception for the couple on Sunday, Sept. 20, from 10:30 a.m. until 1 p.m. in the church basement.

Rev. Sheridan and the former Linda Briggs from Hillsboro were married on Aug. 15 in the chapel at Camp McGruder on the Oregon Coast and then traveled to California on their wedding trip.

Linda taught at Hill High for 10 years and Rev. Sheridan was assistant minister at the United Methodist Church in Hillsboro before coming to Heppner.

The United Methodist Women will be hostesses for the reception.
